Grigory Leps

At age 14 he enrolled in the school of music, completing it the class of percussion instruments. After service in army in Khabarovsk, worked the dance floor, in the Sochi Park "Riviera", sang in restaurants Sochi, played in rock bands. In the late 80's was the singer of the band "Index-398".

In addition, many well-known musicians, such as Alexander hookahs, Oleg Gazmanov, Mikhail anybody, Alexander Rosenbaum, dining in the restaurant, where she sang Leps, advised him to go to the capital. In his memoirs, the capital has met him unfriendly: Я был мало кому интересен. Много пил. Начал употреблять наркотики. Выглядел соответственно плохо. Мой вес был за 100 кг. А люди, обещавшие помочь когда-то – естественно пропали. Трудно было со мной таким.

In 1994 we started recording the first album "God Bless You", which was released in 1995 and the song is from the album "Natalie" quickly gained popularity. On the radio it was regularly ordered by listeners. The singer immediately started filming the two clips ("Natalie", "God Bless You"), but due to the busy rhythm of rehearsals and concerts undermined health.

In 1998, Gregory received an invitation from Alla Pugacheva to sing in "Olympic" in the "Christmas meetings" with the song "still see." Later Alexander hookahs organized a concert of the songs of Vladimir Vysotsky performed by contemporary authors. Leps participated in the celebration with the song "Sail". Cooperation with Alexander Solokha has led to the emergence of such clips as "my Thoughts", "First Birthday" and "the Rat-jealousy", which allowed to look at the genre of the chanson with the other hand
