

Christmas in Great Britain

WELCOME

People in Great Britain like Christmas very much

They decorate streets and houses

British people usually buy gifts for their nearest and dearest. They send cards to their friends and relatives

There is always a big Christmas tree in Trafalgar Square. It is usual gift from Norway. British people gather in the square to celebrate Christmas together

They watch beautiful fireworks

British children put their socks to mantelshelf. They believe that Santa Clause comes and puts gifts into them. They leave cookies and milk for Santa near Christmas tree

They have great dinner with cakes and turkey

Merry
Christmas
