

Swedish rapping sensation Yung Lean and his crew Sad Boys

Yung lean interview

Jonatan Leandroer

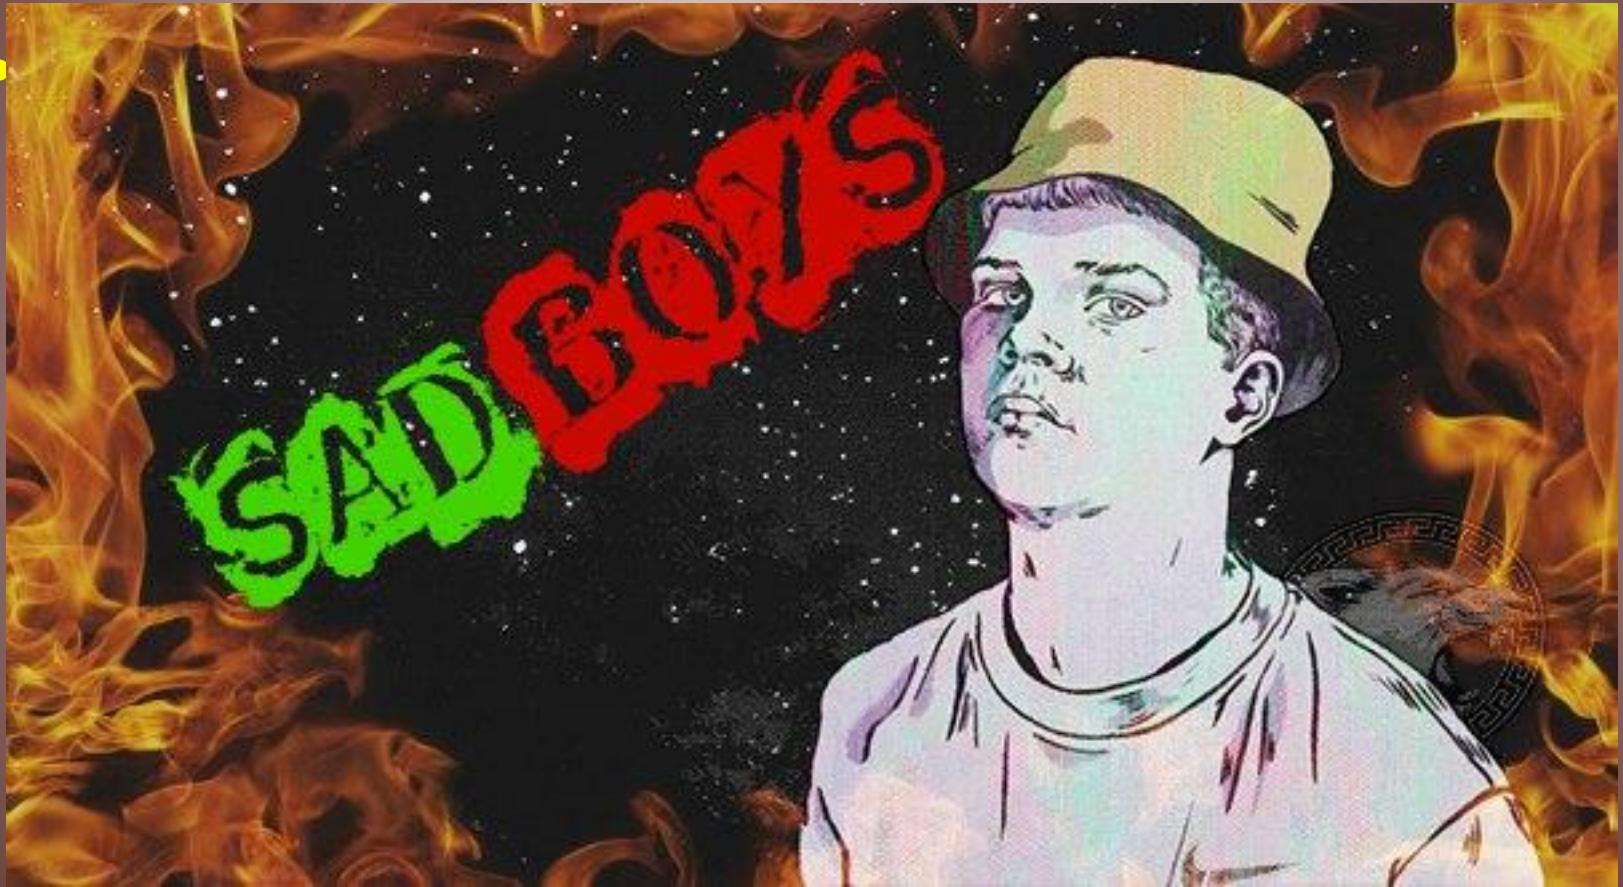

Growing up in Stockholm, what was the Hip Hop culture like there? How did you first get into rap music?

- When I was a kid, around seven or eight, I started listening to Nas, Illmatic. Those were my first albums. After that I started buying CDs for myself

So American Hip Hop has always had a major influence on you?

- Yeah. It was definitely the first touch I got. But there's also this Swedish rap band The Latin Kings

Who else do you like from London?

Have you always rapped in English?

- I started rappin in Swedish. Then I started writing in English and it just flowed better

What's your favorite part of performing?

- Listening to your songs on big speakers. Being able to do whatever you want.

Great answer.

