Almost in every culture in the world there is a celebration of thanks for rich harvest. The American Thanksgiving began as a feast of thanksgiving almost four hundred years ago.

In 1620, a religious community sailed across the Atlantic Ocean to settle in the New World.

They settled in what is now known as the state : Massachusetts.

Their first winter in America was difficult. They arrived too late to grow a rich harvest. Moreover, half the colony died from disease.

In the autumn of 1621 they got a beautiful harvest of corn, barley, beans and pumpkins.

The colonists had much to be thankful for, so they planned a feast. Local Indian chief and ninety Indians were present.

dishes of pumpkins.

In following years many of the colonists celebrated the harvest with a feast of thanks.

After the United States gained independence, Congress recommended one yearly day of Thanksgiving for the whole country. Later, George Washington suggested the date November 26 as Thanksgiving Day.

Then, after the Civil war,
Abraham
Lincoln

On Thanksgiving Day, family members gather at the house of an older relative, even if they live too away. All give thanks for everything good they have.

Thanksgiving

Charitable organizations offer traditional meal to the homeless.

Foods, eaten at the first thanksgiving, have become traditional. The traditional thanksgiving meal consists of roast turkey stuffed with herb-flavored bread, cranberry jelly, mashed potatoes, pumpkin pie.

Other dishes may vary as to region: ham, sweet potatoes, creamed corn.

A festive Thanksgiving dinner spread is displayed on a red and white plaid tablecloth. The centerpiece is a large, golden-brown roasted turkey on a silver platter, garnished with green herbs, red grapes, and yellow star-shaped decorations. To the right, a silver bowl holds a vibrant vegetable medley of carrots, broccoli, and onions. Above it, another silver platter is filled with sliced cranberries. In the foreground, a silver bowl contains a light-colored soup or gravy. To the right of the soup, a silver platter holds a dark, chunky cranberry sauce. In the lower foreground, a silver platter is piled with slices of golden-brown bread. A white cloth napkin is visible in the bottom left corner. The text "Happy Thanksgiving!" is overlaid in a dark, elegant script font across the middle of the image.

Happy Thanksgiving!
