THE BEATLES

Who are they?

THE BEATLES

Some may say that they are four young long-haired hooligans singing primitive rock'n'roll tunes

Lennon set off a huge wave of record burning protests when he suggested in an interview that "Christianity is dying" and that the Beatles "are more popular than Jesus now."

In August 1966, the band made what would turn out to be its last public performance lasting barely over a half hour.

It was 20 yrs ago today,
when Sgt Pepper taught the band to play

that he was leaving.

The BEATLES

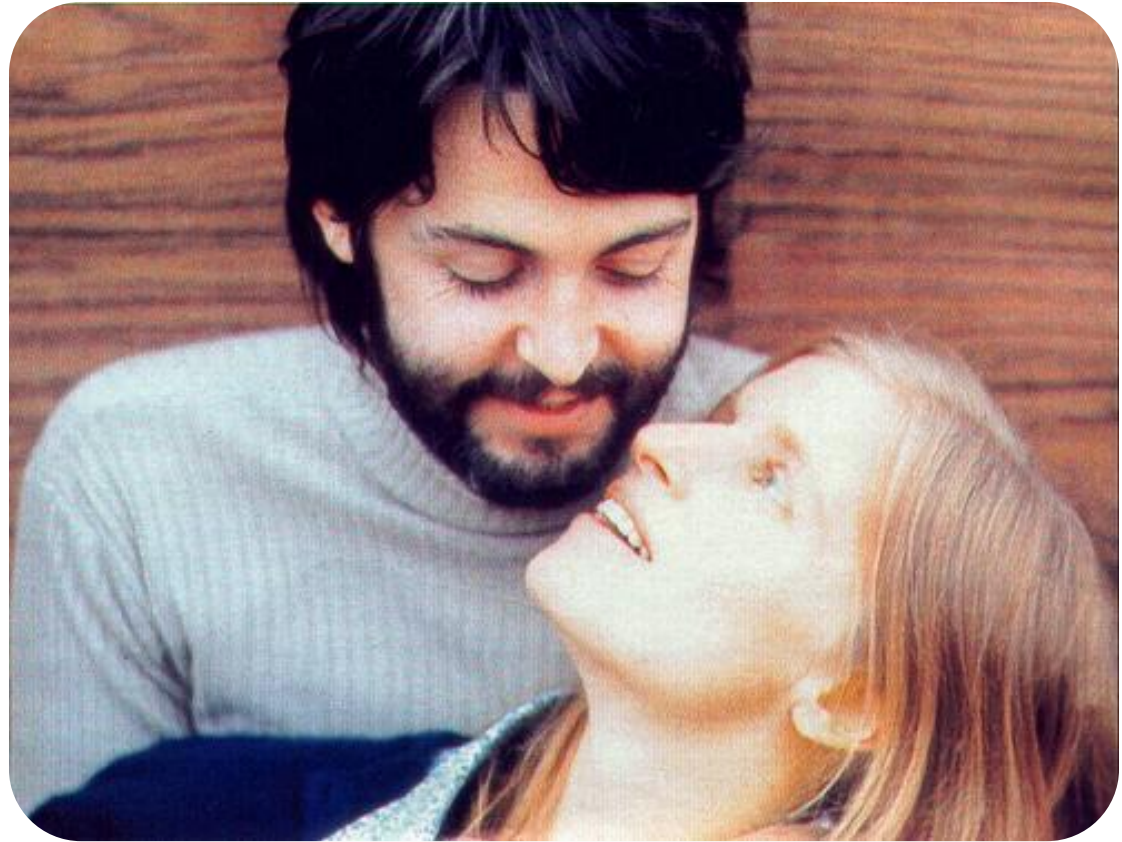

LET IT BE

The band's breakup was announced in April 1970, a month before Let It Be was released.

The Beatles

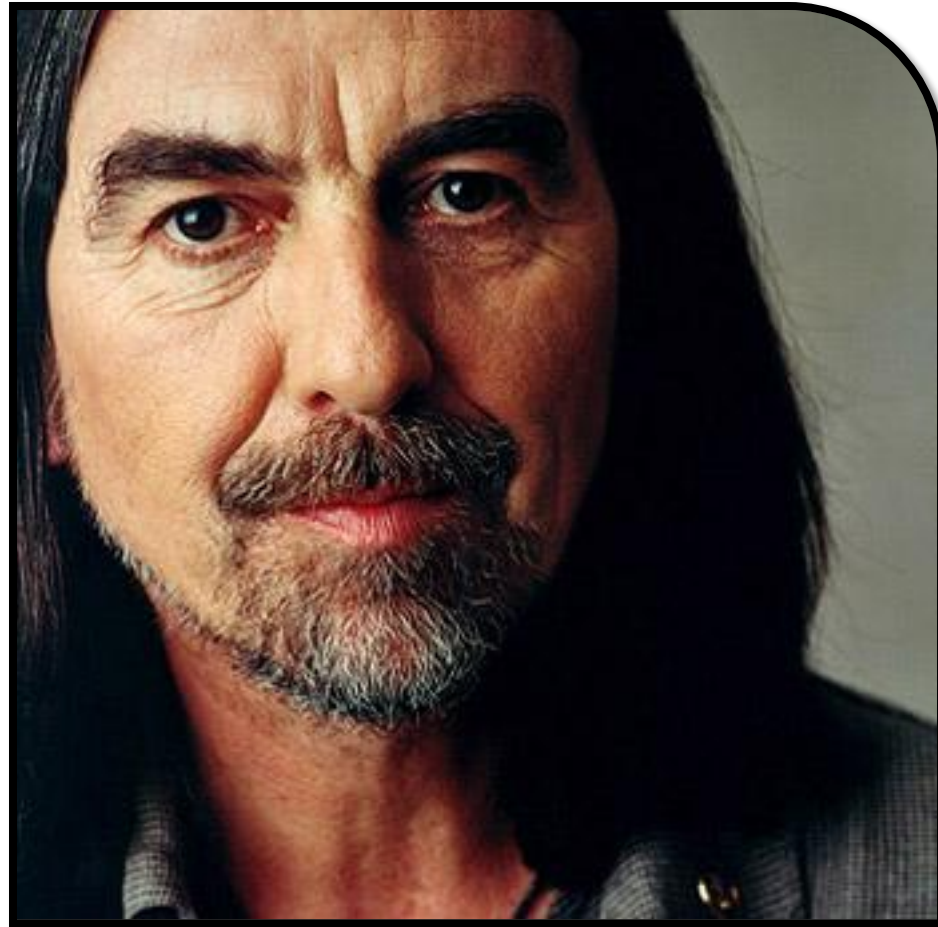

Paul McCartney formed a band called Wings with his wife, Linda

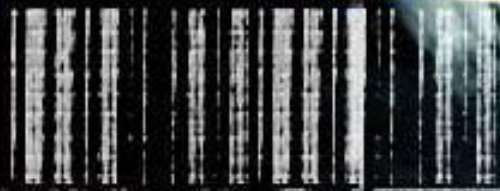

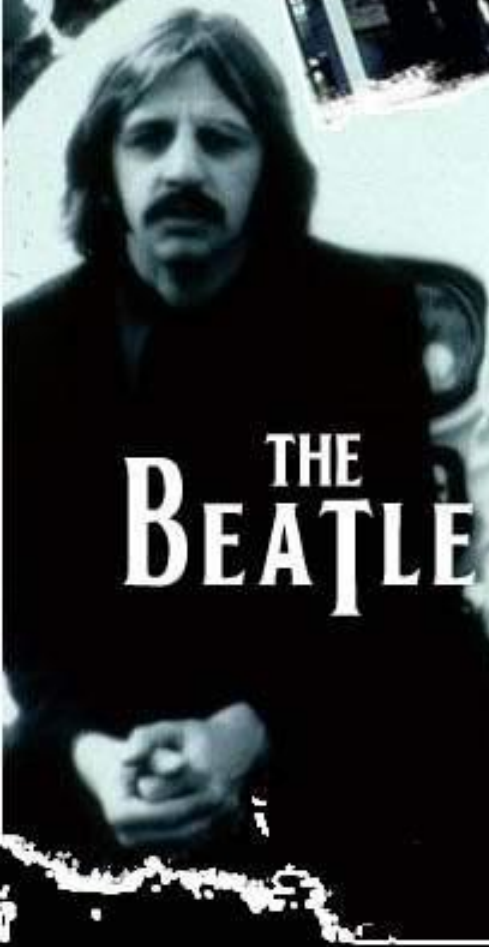

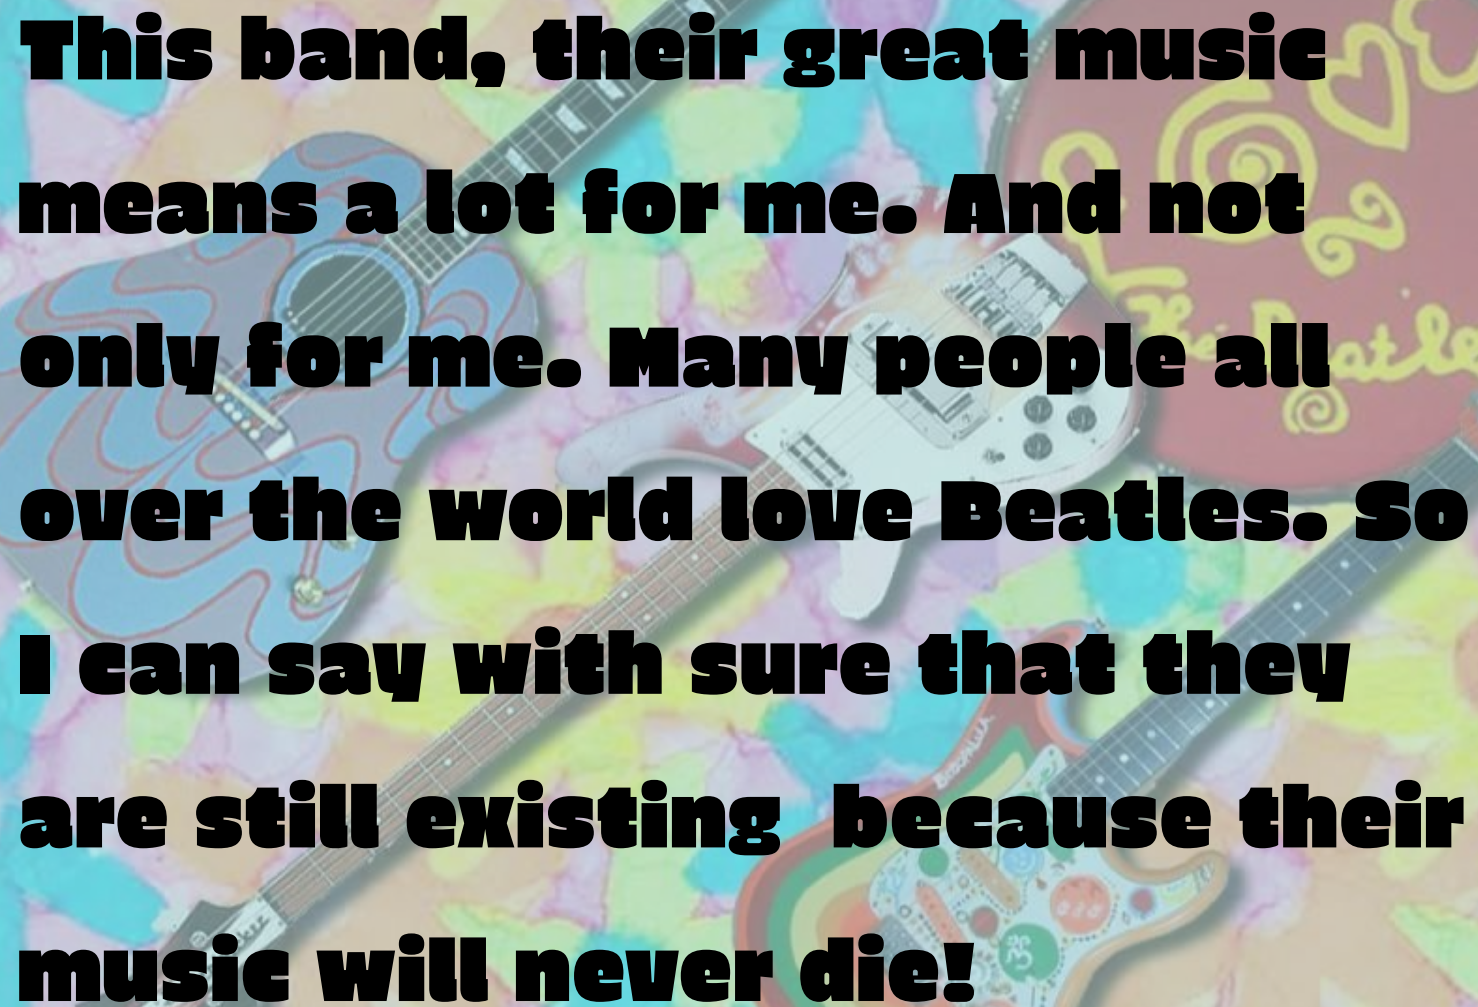

John Lennon achieved great success as a solo artist. Tragically, he was killed by an obsessive fan, Mark David Chapman, in 1980.

George Harrison recorded many solo albums over the years, and died of cancer in 2001.

THE BEATLES

This band, their great music means a lot for me. And not only for me. Many people all over the world love Beatles. So I can say with sure that they are still existing because their music will never die!
