- The Dark world. Eguilibrium.
- Oleg Asadulin is director.
- Type of film is fantasy.
- Actions take place at the University in Moscow and next to it.
- Daria, Sam and Lisa, Misha, Grisha and Pipi are main characters.
- There is the struggle between the ordinary and the dark worlds.

- There are certain people who save the world from mystical beings (shadows).
- Shadows climb through the portal from the Dark world in the Ordinary world and take life out of people that is kill them.
- Certain people send shadows back to the Dark world.
- At the end Good wins.
- Everything returns to its place.
- Students go to university The Dark world has disappeared forever and certain people have become ordinary people.

- In my opinion, the acting is very truthfully played in this film.
- Especially in those moments when there is a fight with shadows.
- Sound effects are also perfectly matched for this movie.

- As for me this film is very interesting with a lot of effects.
- I can advise you to watch this movie.
