Please, be more merciful, be more kind,
There's no boarder for the light.
There's no boarder for the wind.
And for the birds that we need.

We have to save our planet
For those who will live after us.
But we use a lot of poisons
And don't think about our house.

The ozone layer is becoming thinner
It is a shield of life on the Earth
Zones are growing quickly as evil
And there is hidden in the darkness death.

Forests leave their forces
The smell of lime-trees is going by
Keeping sulphate waters
Rains are falling from the sky.
