

THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLISH

Made by: Ilia Zykov, 7-grader

Supervisor: Marina V. Bednjagina

Municipal Educational Institution
Secondary School № 32
with Intensive Foreign Languages Learning

Nizhni Tagil
2009

The AIM of the investigation:

The work is dedicated to the history of the English language and it mainly aims at analyzing the process of its development from the Celts to the present day.

The object:
the history of the English language within the period of its development.

The subject:
borrowings come into English from other European languages and some changes in the English grammar and phonetics.

the hypothesis:

the historic events taken place within the long period of the British history influenced greatly on the language of its people.

problems to be solved:

- to generalize and systematize the information about the language origin and its changing in special scientific and popular literature;
- to get acquainted with the most significant events in the history of England which are reflected in the language development of this country.

James Murray at work, 1900

Methods of investigation:

- analyses of the informational sources
- contrastive analysis
- individual observations

Contents:

■ INTRODUCTION-----	3
■ CHAPTER 1. THE PRESENT AND THE PAST OF ENGLISH -----	4
■ 1.1 English today -----	4
■ 1.2 The beginnings of English-----	5
■ 1.3 Old English-----	7
■ CHAPTER 2. MIDDLE ENGLISH -----	12
■ CHAPTER 3. MODERN ENGLISH -----	15
■ 3.1 Modern English begins-----	15
■ 3.2 Bringing order to English-----	17
■ 3.3 Modern English-----	18
■ 3.4 English in America-----	20
■ CONCLUSION-----	23
■ SOURCES-----	24

Celtic	Latin	Old Norse	French	Other borrowings
London	school	sister	chair	chocolate (Mexico)
Leeds	window	skin	city	tomato (Mexico)
Avon	history	sky	crime	banana (Africa)
Thames	impossible	die	literature	coffee (Turkey)
Esk	picture	take	river	caravan (Persia)

CONCLUSION

The history of English is very interesting and closely connected with the history of its country and the whole world.

THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLISH

