

The Jungle Book

By: Rudyard Kipling

Rudyard Kipling

- Birth Date: 12/30/1865
- Death Date: 1/18/1936 (ulcer hemorrhage)
- Place of Birth: Bombay, India
- Place of Death: Burwash, England
- Parents: John & Alice Kipling
 - John: Artist & Architect
 - Alice: Strong ties to the arts
- Sibling: Alice Kipling

. . . More Kipling facts

- Editor of his school magazine
- Worked for many newspapers post school
- 1892, Married Caroline Balestier
- Two daughters – Josephine (1892-99) & Elsie (1896-1976)
- One son – John (1897-1915) died in WWI – Rudyard suffered gastric ulcers from his worry over his son.

Kipling's career

- 1886- Assistant Editor of Civil and Military Gazette
- 1888- Editor of the weekly supplement, The Week's News
- 1892- Wrote many novels and short stories, but began writing children's novels.
- 1893- The Jungle Book published. 2nd Jungle Book published in 1895.
- 1907– awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature.

. . . More on Kipling's career

- 1910– poem “If- ” published within a series of historical stories
- 1917– Joined the War Graves Commission as a result of his son's disappearance.
- 1937- Kipling's last writings, contained in Something of Myself for my Friends Known and Unknown, published.
- 1976- Elsie Bambridge Kipling, Rudyard's last surviving child, died childless. His copyrights were left by her to the National Trust.

Kipling's Old Home

Kipling's Last Home

Kipling's Garden

Kipling's Funeral

India

- First known settlement appeared over 9,000 years ago.
- Sovereign country in South Asia.
- Largest democracy in the world. (socialist republic)
- 28 states & 7 federally governed union territories
- India's geographical plate-shift gave rise to the Himalayan Mountains.
- Taj Mahal is India's most popular tourist site.

India facts

- Motto: Truth Alone Triumphs
- Anthem: Thou art the ruler of the minds of all people
- National Song: “I bow to thee, Mother!”
- Capital: New Delhi
- Languages: Hindi and English
- Aug. 15, 1947 – declared independence from UK
- Jan. 26, 1950 – became a Republic country
- 7th largest country (by area)
- 2nd most populous (1.12 billion)

. . . More India Facts

- Currency: Indian Rupee
- Name Derivation: Indus, which is derived from the Old Persian word Hindu.
- Animal: Royal Bengal Tiger
- Bird: Indian Peacock
- Flower: Lotus
- Tree: Banyan
- Fruit: Mango
- Sport: Field Hockey

Why India?

- Kipling was born in Bombay, India
- Customs and ways of life familiar to Kipling
- Kipling shares his love of and fascination with India with his readers who are not able to visit this magical place.

The Jungle Book

- Centers around the life of a young boy named Mowgli.
- Mowgli is raised by wolves and lives among animals located in the Indian Jungle.
- His stories are featured in three stories within The Jungle Book: “Mowgli’s Brothers,” “Kaa’s Hunting,” and “Tiger, Tiger.”

Characters

Mowgli – main character (young boy)

Akela – head of the wolf council

He is a good ruler and a true friend to Mowgli

Kaa – Rock Python Snake

Not evil; just has a different method of hunting

Baloo – loveable, brown bear.

The only non-wolf member (besides Mowgli) of the Wolf Council of Elders

Mowgli's best friend

More characters

Bagheera – sleek and wise black panther

Mowgli's friend, sponsor, and tutor

Born and raised in captivity

Members of the Bandar-Log – band of wild monkeys, portrayed by “King Louie” in the animated version

Shere Khan – Striped tiger who is sometimes called the “Big One” and “Lungri, the Lame One”

Feared for his power, but he is not respected

Layout of the Story

- Consists of seven (7) short stories:
 - Three (3) are about Mowgli and his jungle friends.
 - Four (4) are a series of animal fables.
- Each story is followed by a lyrical poem or song, supposedly sung or spoken by the main character, summarizing the story.

Themes

- Mistrust of People Who are Different
 - Mowgli's entrance into the wolf pack
 - Mowgli's entrance into the village, as well as the villager's perceptions of Mowgli
- The Value of Friendship
 - Relationships between Mowgli and the jungle animals
- Innocence of Animals and Children
 - Animals appearance as non-threatening to humans
 - Mowgli's innocence toward the animals, as well as his judgment towards the animals and the village people.

Places in The Jungle Book

- Tropical jungle in the British colony of India
- Bering Sea (“The White Seal” and “Servants of the Queen”) - Novastoshnah
- Monkey City of Bandar-Log
- Council rock
- South Pacific
- Segowlee Contonment

Think about it...

- How are you like Mowgli?
- How are yours and Mowgli's worlds similar?
- Is it important for a youth to leave their "safety-nest" and go live among others who are like them?
- How much of our "life experiences" influence our thinking, our goals, and our perception of the world around us?

