

The legend of ballet

Angela Isadora
Duncan
(1877 – 1927)

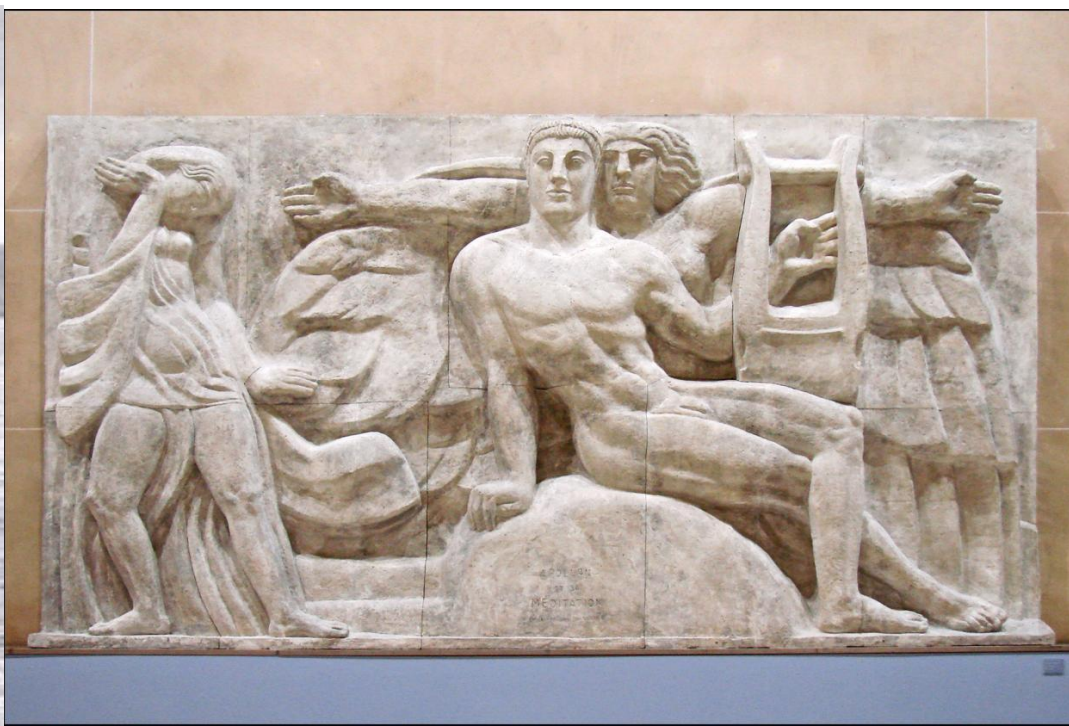

She sought the connection between emotions and movement:

“I spent long days and nights in the studio seeking that dance which might be the divine expression of the human spirit through the medium of the body’s movement.”

She was Inspired by Grecian forms, tunics and also danced barefoot on the stage.

"This is red! So am I!" "This is red! So am I!"

She developed free and natural movements inspired by the classical Greek arts

a new dance technique that garnered Duncan the title of the creator of modern dance

"Adieu, mes amis. Je vais à la gloire!" ("Farewell, my friends. I go to glory!")
