

The most beautiful places in our planet

A scenic landscape featuring rolling green hills in the foreground and middle ground. A dense line of trees separates the hills from the background. The sky is filled with large, dramatic, grey and white clouds, with patches of blue visible. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.

Our planet has a really amazing and marvelous places. Some places was made by people and some was made by nature.

Even though the trappings of civilization are all around us, there are still some parts of the globe where our influence is small: From the ice sheet of Antarctica to the jungles of Papua New Guinea

Grand canyon

- Grand Canyon is a National Park, included a World Heritage Site. Lies on the Colorado Plateau in northwestern Arizona.

Canadian Rockies, Canada

- This beautiful mountain landscapes, lakes, canyons, waterfalls, glaciers, peaks, limestone caves. Included in the list of UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Great Barrier Reef. Australia.

- One of the natural wonders of the world.
- It is the world's largest coral reef.

Niagara Waterfall

A wide-angle photograph of the Niagara Waterfall. The water flows over a dark, rocky ledge and cascades down into a pool of water. The waterfall is surrounded by lush green trees and vegetation. In the foreground, a paved walkway with a metal railing runs along the edge of the waterfall. Several people are standing on the walkway, looking at the waterfall. The sky is blue with some clouds.

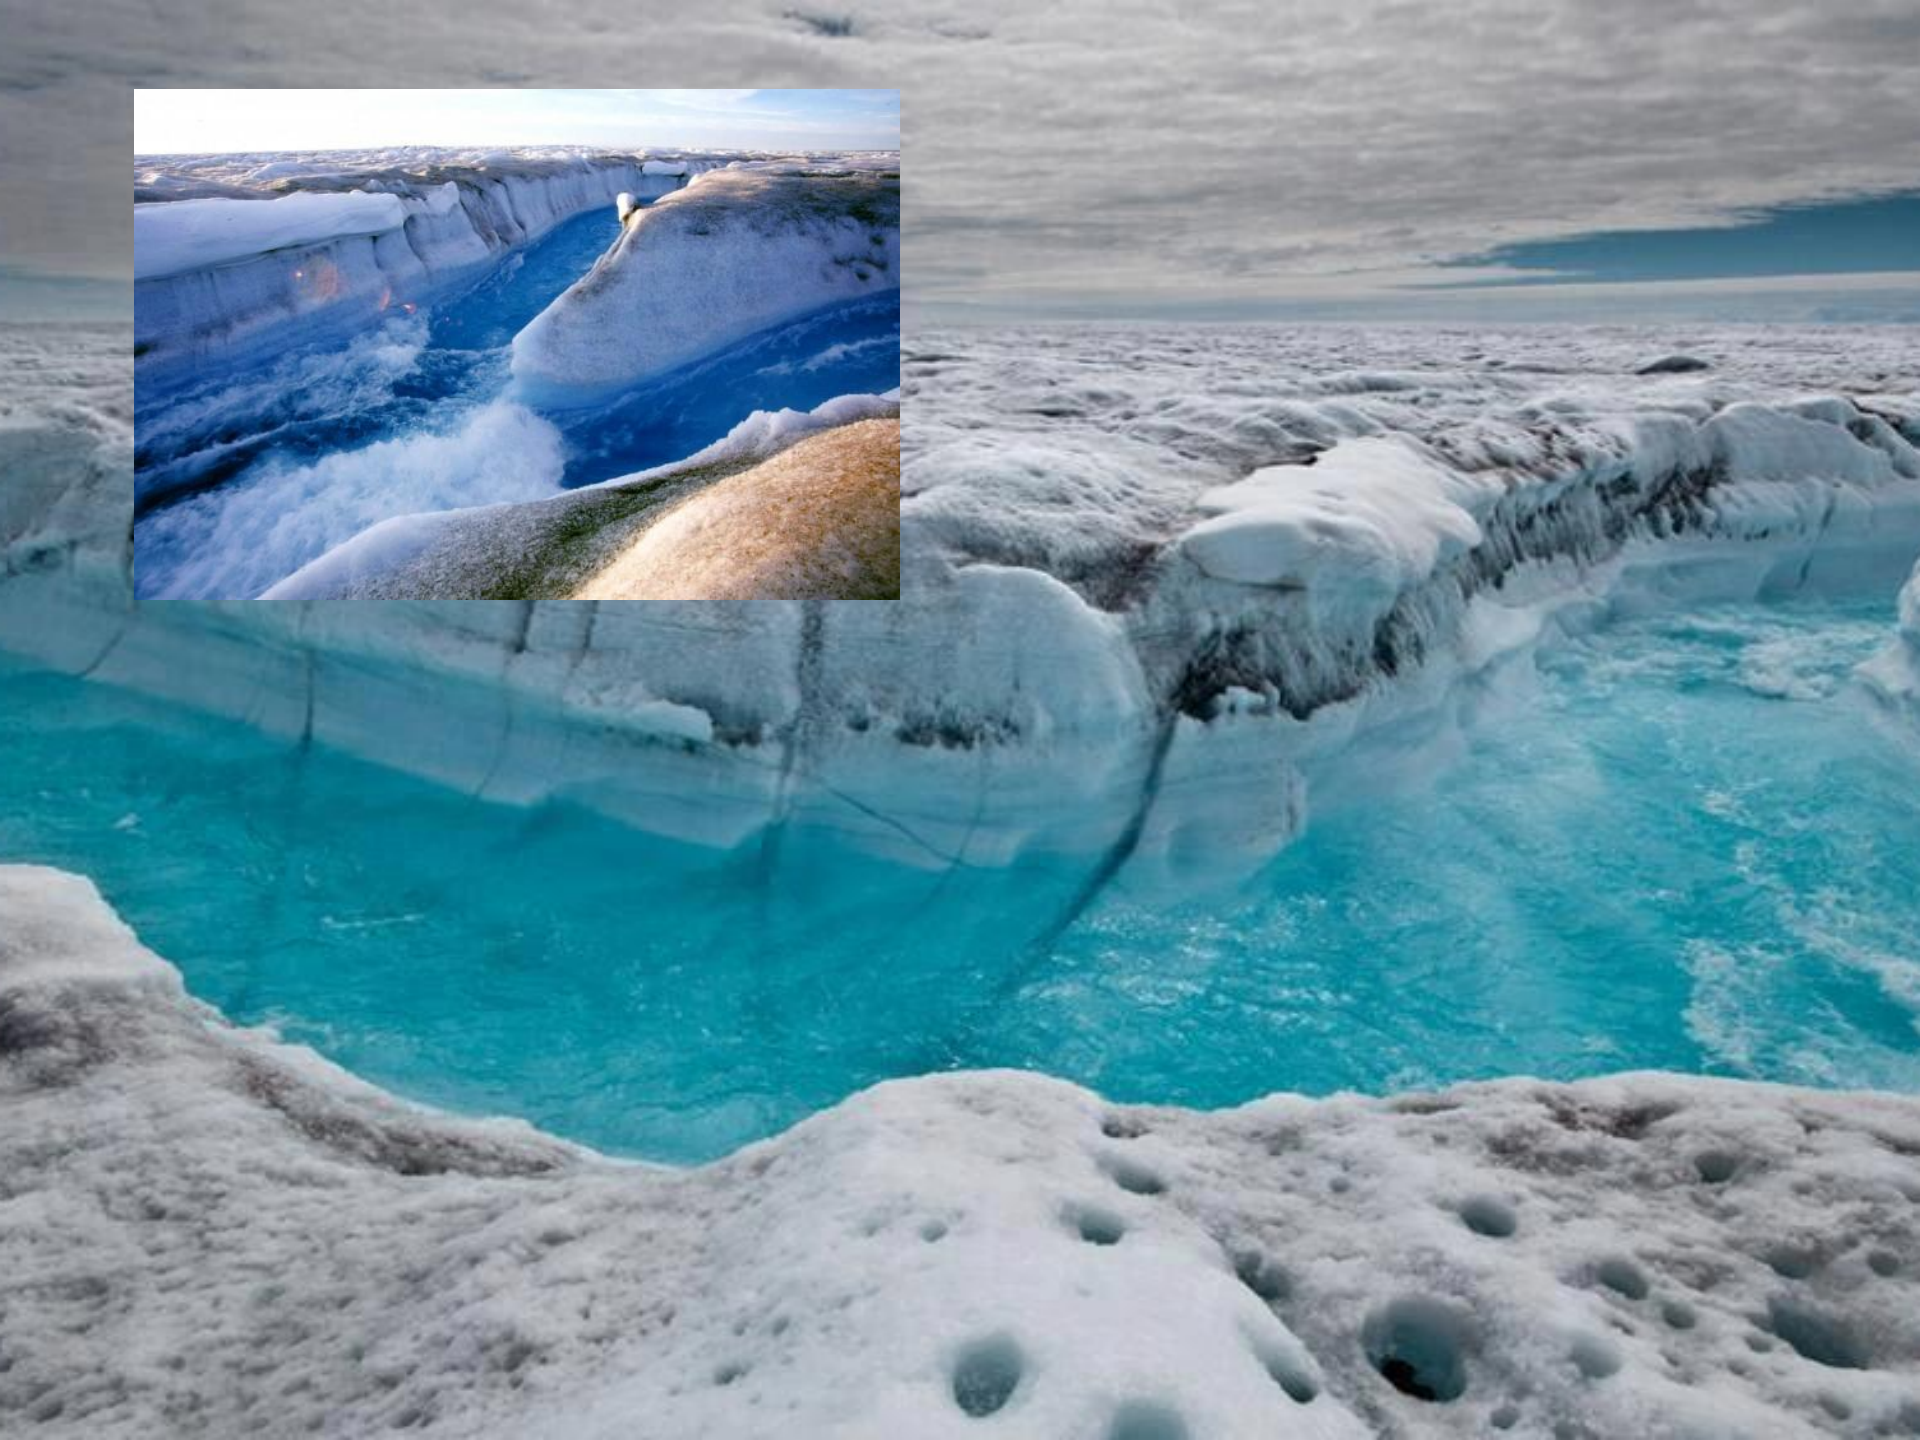

- This is set of waterfalls on the Niagara River. This waterfall is the most powerful and wonderfull in North America.

Ice Canyon, Greenland

An aerial photograph of a deep, narrow ice canyon in Greenland. The canyon walls are steep and composed of white ice and snow, showing some vertical erosion patterns. At the bottom of the canyon, there is a large, dark turquoise lake. The surrounding landscape is a flat, white expanse of ice and snow under a clear blue sky.

- Greenland - the land of ice and snow that covered the island all year and give it incredible beauty.

We should save this beauty together.

Thank you!!!
