The Role of the Internal Audit Department

Research Administrators Network

Definition of Internal Auditing

“Internal auditing is an independent, objective assurance and consulting activity designed to add value and improve an organization's operations. It helps an organization accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes.”

UNM Internal Audit Department

We Report to the Board of Regents Audit Committee

- Ensures independence
- Elevate issues to a level where they can be corrected
- Keeps Regents informed
- Meets quarterly

What is Risk Based Auditing?

- Focus on risk of occurrences that could prevent the University from achieving its goals
- There are many types of risk – fraud, improper reporting, ineffective or inefficient use of resources, credibility loss, etc.
- Focus on areas with high risk and high probability that controls are not in place or are weak

UNM Internal Audit Department

We have a plan!

- Risk based audit plan developed with input from across the University
- Risk factors:
 - Impact
 - Probability
 - Controls

What Is the Plan?

- List of audits for fiscal year
- Based on risk assessment and available man hours
- Includes estimated budget hours and completion date
- Approved by Audit Committee

It's the "little" things that get you!

- Misreporting hours.
- Forgetting to obtain prior approval when needed.
- Using estimates that are not supported.
- Any violation of University policy.

Preventive Measures

- Make sure your controls are working
- Review and reconcile
- Check the work of your subordinates
- Don't give in to the temptation to skip controls because you are busy!

What is included in the audit report?

- What was found
- Why it happened
- What is required
- What effect it has
- Recommendation for improvement
- Response – who, when and how

UNM Internal Audit Department

What happens after the audit?

- Follow-up
- Review corrective action
- Report to Audit Committee

UNM Internal Audit Department

Who Audits the Auditors?

- We must have a peer review at least once every five years
- Our Standards are set by the Institute of Internal Auditors, and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
