The Statue of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty is the most famous of landmarks and a symbol of freedom and Empire State Building.

The symbol of the country is the BALD-HEADED EAGLE.
In 1782, Congress selected the bald eagle as the emblem of the newly-formed state to show the courage and might of the nation.

The American flag is known as
THE STARS AND STRIPES

Washington

Washington is the capital of the USA. It isn't the largest city, but it is very beautiful and has many attractions. There is the Capitol and the White House.

Congress works in the Capitol. The President lives in the White House.

Tourists come here to watch the "Pencil", Jefferson Memorial and Lincoln Memorial or to visit the National Air and Space Museum. The White House is an attraction, too.

New York

There is no city quite like New York. It is known as The City That Never Sleeps. For the visitor New York means skyscrapers, tremendous traffic, dazzling neon advertisements. New York is an international city, the place to try something new.

- Central park is the largest park of the USA. There are many attractions in this park.
- Sports fans can watch and play baseball. You can relax in Central Park. There is a Zoo of Childrens.

Boston

- Boston is the oldest city of the USA. It is famous for its role in the War for Independence. Tourists can see many interesting things there. In the Public Garden one can go boating on a boat which has a shape of a swan. Every year Boston Marathon takes place in Boston. Many people take part in it.

Los Angeles

- Los Angeles is very big, noisy and famous all over the world because there is Hollywood. American films are made in Hollywood. There is wonderful fairy land called Disneyland near Los Angeles. You can see the characters from Walt Disney's films.

Natural attractions of the USA

- There are many natural wonders in the USA. The most widely known is Niagara Falls. It is an Indian word which means "roaring waters". Other attractions are Yellowstone and Yosemite National Parks, Grand Canyon, and the vast desert between Salt Lake City and Reno, Nevada.
