The Union Jack
the flag of Great Britain

The Union Jack
This is the popular name to the flag of Great Britain

Actually it is called the Union Flag and it is a mixture of several flags:

It all began in 1606
when Scotland was joined to England and Wal

The Scottish flag, St Andrew's Cross

the English Flag, St George's Cross

The English people got the Union Flag which is red, white and blue. King James the First (1566 – 1625) ordered that the Union Flag should be flown on the main mast of all British ships, except on ships of war. Here the flag was flown at the front of the ships, on what was called the bowsprit. The end of the bowsprit was called the Jack Star and so we get the name of Union Jack. A “jack” by the way is an old word for a flag.

In 1801, when Ireland was joined to the Union, as it was called, the Irish Flag and St. Patrick's Cross

BRITISH IMPIRE (to 1921)

The Union Jack is also on the flags of Australia and New Zealand
