

The Magic World of Theatre

The theatre is a magic world to which people escape from their everyday routine at home.

Theatre	Play	Scene	Acting
go to, visit, work in, study	review, put on, give	rehearse, act, shoot, change, take place	do overcrowded, open air, puppet, experimental, youth, contemporary classical	one-act, morality, musical, nativity, Television	opening, touching, gripping, love, battle, final	brilliant, wooden, poor, excellent

Model

Alternative Questions with 'theatre' collocations

- Is there a classical or experimental theatre in your town?

General Questions with 'play' collocations

- Did your local company put on a nativity play before Christmas?

Special Questions with 'scene' collocations

- What took place in the opening scene?

Disjunctive Questions with 'acting' collocations

- Shirley's acting was excellent, wasn't it?

A SUCCESS

to act brilliantly/well

to cheer

a packed theatre

a storm of applause

To become a masterpiece

to praise to the skies

to take curtain calls

to shower with flowers

to get a standing ovation

A FLOP

to act badly

wooden/poor acting

to catcall an actor

to boo smb. off stage

stage fright

to forget one's lines

to turn out a failure

not to be convincing

Here are some quotations from Shakespeare's plays. Match them with the definitions.

Quotations

1. "To be or not to be – that is the question..."(Hamlet)
2. "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players." (As you Like It)
3. "Neither a lender nor a borrower be." (Hamlet)
4. "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears."
(Julius Caesar)

Definitions

- a. Life is like a play.
- b. Listen to me, everyone.
- c. Do I want to live any longer?
- d. It is not a good idea to lend money or to be in debt.