But the city I like best
Is, no doubt, mine!»*

Polohy is a pleasant small town on the left bank of the river Konca.

The total area of the town is 1.3 thousand square km. The population is about 20 thousand people. Polohy was founded at the end of the XIX th century as a village, but in 1937 it got its present name “Polohy” and in 1938 it became a town.

*Our town is also a rail junction.
There is a great and comfortable railway station and a Locomotive Depot.

We have some schools, a Professional lyceum, a Gymnasium and, of course, our Collegium.
