

United States Landmarks

Introduction of the White House

- Official residence of the President of the United States
- 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington DC
- Home of all the Presidents, except George Washington
- Construction of the White House began on October 13, 1792

Introduction

Continued

- During the War of 1812, the White House was set on fire and rebuilt in 1817
- The White House sits on 18 acres
- The President's office is called, "The Oval Office"

Washington Monument

Washington D.C.

- Built to remember our 1st president, George Washington.
- Honors George Washington as the Father of Our Country.
- It is about 555 feet tall and has a pointed top.

Lincoln Memorial

Washington D.C.

- Built to remember Abraham Lincoln, our 16th president.
- Honors his work to end slavery.
- A 19 foot statue that shows President Lincoln sitting in a chair.

Jefferson Memorial

- Built to remember our 3rd president, Thomas Jefferson.
- President Jefferson was the author of the Declaration of Independence.
- Built the plantation, Monticello.

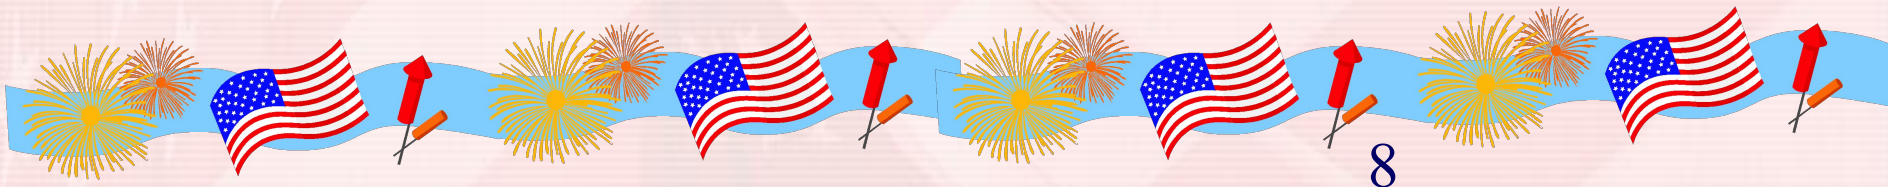

Introduction of the Statue of Liberty

- It is located on Bedloe Island (Liberty Island) and rises above the New York Harbor
- She was a gift of friendship from France
- The statue was sculpted by Frédéric-Auguste Bartholdi
- Lady Liberty was shipped in 350 pieces across the Atlantic Ocean

Statue of Liberty Facts

- 354 stairs to the top
- 25 windows in her crown
- 7 spikes represent each continent
- Made of copper
- Weighs 450,000 pounds
- 151 ft tall
- $270,000 to create
- Took 9 years to build
- Required 250 crates to ship to U.S.
- Based on a woman's shoe size, her size is 879

Statue of Liberty

New York City

- The seven spikes on the crown represent the light of liberty shining on the seven seas and continents.
- The torch stands for lighting the way to freedom.
- The tablet shows the date the Declaration of Independence was signed.

Liberty Bell

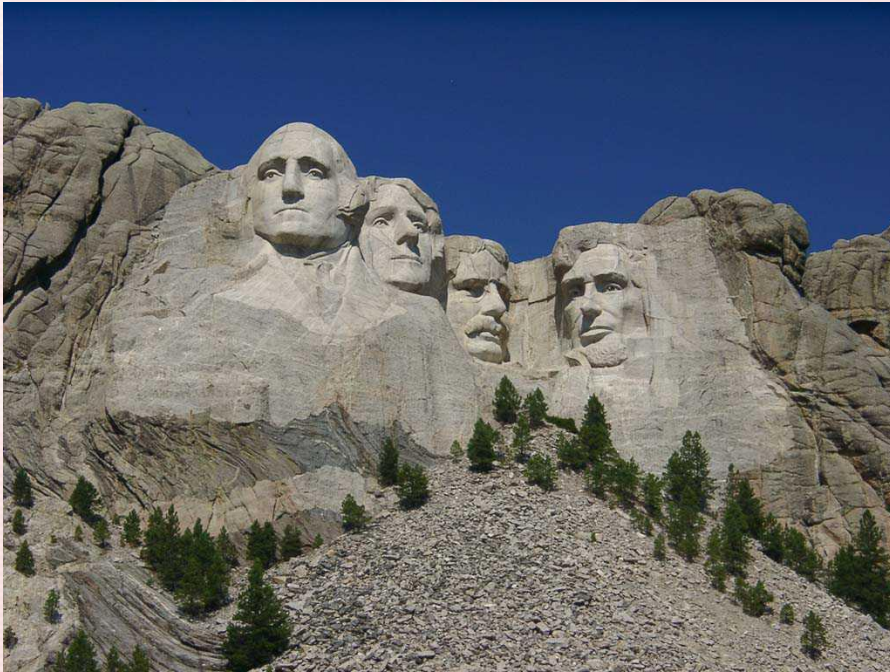

Pennsylvania

- Rang in 1776 when the Declaration of Independence was signed.
- Rang for many years until it cracked in 1835.
- You can see the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia.

Mount Rushmore

South Dakota

- Honors George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, and Abraham Lincoln.
- Faces are about 60 feet tall.
- About 400 workers help build the monument.