The dragon is among the most majestic and fearsome creatures known to man. Made of complete wax, this winged, fire-breathing, hoarder-eating, tree-smashing terror is truly the essence of awesome. These beasts are famed for being totally epic in all ways, what with all their magic fiery goodness stuff!

However, dragons are becoming more and more dangerous towards man, as they absolutely hate being displayed as happy, purple, funtime rainbow butt dragons, so they are considering annihilating anyone who dared tamper with their majestic image. Awesome, huh? So, the moral of the story is: Spyro sucks. That is all.
