The child knows what he's saying

TO SUM UP arguments “AGAINST”

Parents have no right to recommend friends for their children because,

firstly, children must develop the skill of making relationships;

secondly, children must get life experience at their own expense (or by their own mistakes)

Where do you stand?

TEENAGERS SHOULD CHOOSE THEIR FRIENDS THEMSELVES BECAUSE IT IS THE ONLY WAY TO LEARN HOW TO MAKE GOOD RELATIONS

Let's live peacefully...if it's possible

What would you say if your child made friends with a young man of age?

What is a big secret of the small company?

Where do you stand?

Parents should not choose friends for their teenagers.

The only friend

Would you like to see your child in such a company?

How to choose friends?

A good friend encourages you to show your best.

A false friend inspires
you to low deeds.

A bad example

Where do you stand?

better how to choose friends for you.

Nobody understands
