Waterloo Bridge, located on a bend of the Thames, may offer the most beautiful views of London.

On the South Bank of the Thames, there is a Ferris wheel known as the London Eye.

The highest point of the Eyes offer a magnificent view of the city, at a distance of 25-minute miles in all directions.

This is the easiest and quickest way to see the British capital entirely and throw a quick look at the most of London's attractions.

On the observation deck of the Tower of the famous Tower Bridge, you can fully enjoy the magnificent views of London areas.

Absolutely stunning views of the most famous places in London to capture on camera, a small cruise on Thames.

If a tourist did not visit St. Paul's Cathedral, so he really didn't see London.

It is from the observation deck, located on the dome of the Cathedral, a magnificent view of the central part of London.

Big Ben is one of the most famous buildings in the UK.

The tower was designed by the English architect Augustus P'ûdžina in 1858.

First time clocks May 21, 1859, opened.

Officially the Tower called "Vestminskogo clock tower of the Palace".

In London, are the most beautiful parks and gardens of the world.
