The right choice of profession is always important for everyone. When we decide in which sphere of life we want to work, we consider a lot of factors.

The main directions of future career give us our parents

Parents wish young people
enjoyable and stable work

Sometimes teenagers want to do the same job as their parents. There are a lot of families in which members engage in the same business.

Some young people want to choose the identical profession as their friends, study in one institute and continue communication with them.

Of course it is very nice to keep in touch with old mates but maybe you will have to do awful work that isn't interesting for you. So it's worth thinking before to join your friends' company in boring university. If one chooses to be a doctor it doesn't mean that others will like this occupation too.

“Brilliant”

“A ravishing wartime drama...
Mesmerising”

“Absolutely sensational”

THE EDGE OF LOVE

OPENS IN CINEMAS ACROSS LONDON FRIDAY JUNE 20TH

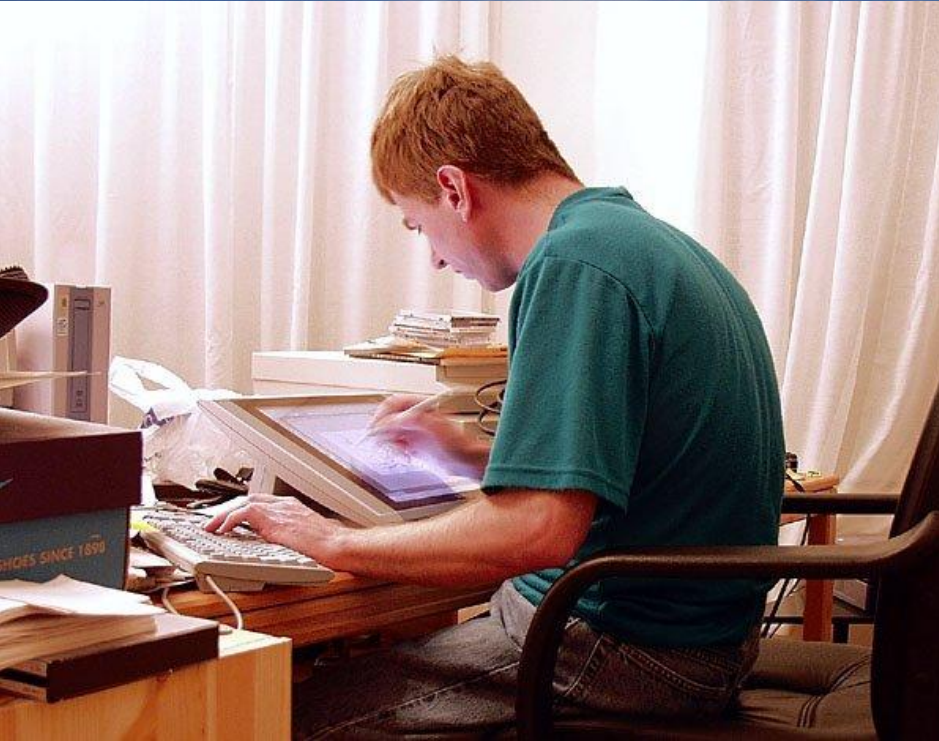

A lot of young people charmed of exterior of some jobs. They think that such jobs as actor, singer or top model are very attractive and bring a lot of money.

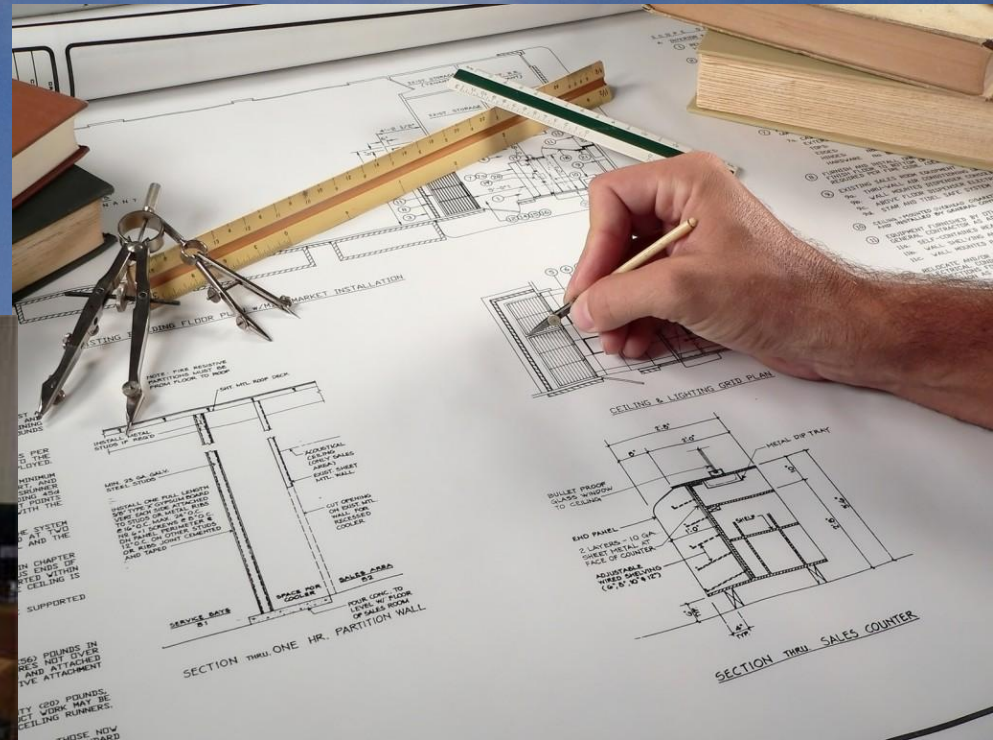

But teenagers don't understand that it is also a hard craft. Besides, be in the focus of public attention is not very good purpose. Sometimes famous people are unhappy and even nervous.

Personal qualities and abilities

painters or designers
should be creative,
imaginative and inspirational

- Engineers, architectures or mechanics should have technical skills

Psychologists or nurses work with people and that's why they should be kind and tolerant and be able to communicate with anyone

Besides, we can see that many of people is attracted by high salary of certain job. Of course, well-paid job is always good but it also requires a lot of skills and high-qualification. If you want to get more money you must work hard and improve yourself.

When we choose the future profession we should consider all factors around us.

So we will manage to do right choice.

Thank you for your attention!
