The beginning:

The history of our town.

A settlement of Komsomolskiy was built in 1962 to support timber and natural gas industries. The settlement grew as the gas fields of the Western Siberia were being explored, and the production association Tyumentransgas has being developed. In March of 1959, subdivisions of railway troops started the construction of the "Ivdel-Ob" railway.

At the same time, taiga was explored, the first timber farms were created, and residential housing development was continued. It took over thirty years to construct a compact and comfortable town.
