

Youth, I do adore you!

Youth is full of pleasance...

Youth like summer morn...

Youth like summer brave...

Youth is full of sport...

Youth is nimble...

Youth is hot and bold...

Youth is wild ...

Youth, I do adore you!

William Shakespeare

During the life Man is...

- a new-born baby
- a baby
- a little boy/girl
- a teenager
- a school leaver
- an adult
- a middle-aged person
- an elderly person...

What period of life is(was)
the most important
for you?

a baby

a little child

a primary pupil

a 5-7th former

a teenager

WHY?

“Brain Storm”

- Whom do you call a teenager?
 - What do you spend your pocket money on?
- What time do you have to be at home in the evening?
 - What do you do in your free time?
 - How much homework do you have?
 - Do you enjoy school?

Your opinion on these questions

- You are teenagers. Do you know your rights?
- Are your rights always kept?
- You are teenagers. Do you know your responsibilities?
- Do you always keep your responsibilities?

✓ *Are there only good points
or only bad points
in your teenage life?*

Good points and bad points in your teenage life (the pupils' opinion)

+++++++

Good points and bad points in the teenage life (the teachers' opinion)

+++++++

- ✓ socializing with friends
- ✓ social events: discos, parties
- ✓ experiments with appearance
- ✓ independence in everything
- ✓ possibility to earn money
- ✓ being a member of a club/association

- problems with peers
 - lack of friends
- problems with parents and teachers
- low/high self-esteem
 - complexes
 - social inactivity
 - much pressure to smoke, drink and take drugs
- early pregnancy

We can turn the “-”s into the “+”s...

- ✓ being patient,
tolerant, sensible,
well-mannered,
non-violent and
interesting to others
- ✓ not being afraid to be seen as losers

- ✓ getting over complexes
- ✓ saying “NO” to alcohol,
cigarettes, drugs
- ✓ leading the healthy life
style
- ✓ ...