Змея?

The image shows two tennis balls with a highly textured, porous surface. The balls are positioned diagonally, with one larger ball in the upper left and a smaller one in the lower right. They are set against a background of green, wavy, textured material that resembles a close-up of a tennis ball's surface or a similar material. The overall color palette is dominated by shades of green and purple/pinkish tones.

Теннисные мячики?

Ватрушка с маком?

A collection of various pollen grains and spores, including a large yellow spiky one in the center, a purple one with a honeycomb pattern, and several others with different shapes and colors like green, brown, and white. The background is black.
