A central globe of the Earth is surrounded by various icons representing nature and urban development. At the top left is a bright yellow sun. To its right is a blue bird in flight. Further right is a green car. Below the car is a green tree. To the right of the tree is a yellow leaf. Below the globe are several icons of buildings and houses. The background is a dark blue space filled with white stars. The text is written in a large, red, serif font across the globe.
