

A vibrant, whimsical illustration of a fairytale world. On the left, a multi-tiered castle with a red conical roof and a green turret sits on a white, fluffy cloud. A set of yellow and red stairs leads up to the castle. The background is a deep purple and blue night sky with a large, glowing full moon. Golden stars of various sizes are scattered throughout the scene, some appearing to trail behind a glowing, ornate archway. In the lower right, a small, cute rabbit is sitting inside a green teacup, floating on a cloud. The overall atmosphere is magical and dreamlike.
