

Schools in the Great Britain

Elementary school

Children begin to go to school when they are five years old. From five to seven they are in infant schools. An infant school is like a kindergarten.

Elementary school

The children draw and paint, they sing and listen to stories which the teacher reads to them. They also play games. In these schools they begin to learn to read and write.

From seven to eleven children in England go to a junior school. Here they all learn to read and write and do mathematics.

Secondary school

From eleven to sixteen boys and girls in England go to a secondary school. They begin to learn in form one. The sixth form is the last form in this school. In England schoolchildren do not go to schools on Saturdays and Sundays.

Marks

Schoolchildren in England get marks. Russian students get a three and a schoolboys in England gets a fifty-five or sixty. Russian students get a four and in England gets a seventy-five or eighty. Russian students get a five and a schoolboys in England gets ninety-seven or a hundred.

Schools in England and America use their own marks: letters or percentage

- A – 90-100 -excellent ,
- B – 80-89 – good,
- C – 70-79 – satisfactory,
- D – 60-69 bad,
- E – 0-59 poor.

Private schools

Some parents choose private schools for their children. They are very expensive. But these schools give the best education and help to have a good job.

Exam

When students are 16 years old they take an exam in different subjects in order to have a qualification. After that students can either leave school and start working or continue their studies in the same school as before.

Uniforms

Each school has a distinctive uniforms of different colors and stripe with the emblem of the school or gymnasium.

- A simple jacket
- Shirt
- Simply tie (for both girls and boys)
- Formal trousers for boys, long and severe skirts for girls
- Oxfords for boys, shoes with a small heel for girls.

Thanks for attention