

Весне навстречу...

A vibrant illustration of a spring landscape. The sky is a gradient of light blue, with a bright sun in the top left corner casting rays across the scene. In the top right, a dark brown branch of a cherry tree is laden with delicate pink blossoms. Below the sky, a few simple black outlines of birds are shown in flight. The ground is a rolling green hill dotted with small yellow and pink flowers. In the foreground, there are several larger flowers, including yellow daisies and pink tulips. Two red ladybugs with black spots are visible on the grass. Three stylized green trees of varying heights are scattered across the landscape.

Ожил лужок,
День прибывает.
Когда это бывает?

Весна не за горами...

Распушилась и смеётся...
