today 28 states have united in common
The goal is to ensure the peace and security of its 500 million citizens.
To date, the EU's main instrument is the 2003 "accession treaty" which came into force on May 2004, the signing on

- European Union is a politic economic union of 28 member

- The European Union is the integration of multi-developed form, which is in charge of 28 countries covered by the European economy, industry, citizens' rights, domestic and foreign policy

THE EU INSTITUTIONS

- The European Parliament
 - The Council of Europe
 - EU Council
- The European Commission

The European parliament – elected for 5 years by the EU member states for their interests

The council of Europe –
defines the general policy and priorities of the European Union, the Council shall meet twice every six months

The European commission-the EU's executive body, the European Commission and the EU's common interest. It develops projects in the new European laws, which presents the European Parliament and the Council.

- European union is different from other traditional international organizations with his unique institutional structure. Was created independent institutes, which are filling each other and each of them have some role in the decision-making process.
