

A fantastical illustration of a gnarled tree with a glowing orb in its hollow, surrounded by falling autumn leaves. The scene is set against a dark background, with the tree's trunk and branches rendered in deep, dark tones. The hollow of the tree is filled with a bright, golden light, and a small, glowing orb is visible within it. Numerous autumn leaves in shades of orange, red, and yellow are falling around the tree, creating a sense of movement and atmosphere. The overall mood is magical and serene.
