

A fantastical illustration of a gnarled tree with a glowing orb in its hollow, surrounded by falling autumn leaves. The scene is set against a dark, starry night sky. The tree's trunk is thick and twisted, with a large hollow in the center. Inside the hollow, a bright, glowing orb of light is visible, surrounded by a dense field of falling autumn leaves in shades of orange, yellow, and red. The tree's branches are dark and intricate, with some leaves still attached. The overall atmosphere is magical and serene.
