The first holiday of the year is New Year's Day.

People see the new year in at midnight on the 31st of December. They greet the new year with champagne and listen to the Kremlin chimes beating the clock. There are lots of New Year traditions in Russia. In every country there is a New Year tree decorated with coloured lights and ornaments. Children always wait for Father Frost to come and give them a present. Many people consider New Year's Day to be a family holiday. But the young prefer to have New Year parties of their own.

Some typical examples of simple birthday greetings are: "On your mark, get ready, go! It's time for you to steal the show! Happy Birthday!" "Today's your day, so stay tuned in for birthday fun that makes you grin!" "You're № 1, so have fun on your special day! — Happy Birthday!" They serve as testimony to the fact that in the United States the focus is definitely on the individual, at least on that one very special birthday each year.

HOLIDAYS

There are many national holidays in Russia, when people all over the country do not work and have special celebrations. The major holidays are: New Year's Day, Women's Day, May Day, Victory Day, and Independence Day.

IT'S YOUR SPECIAL DAY!!!

Now it is considered as assurance that the birthday wish will come true. The custom of singing "Happy Birthday" started about 100 years ago in

Congratulations
