IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a solemn Appeal to the Supreme Judge of the world is requisite that they should declare the Causes which impel them to the Separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient Causes; and accordingly all experienced Men have contemplated Amalgamations with our forefathers, that to rectify themselves by assimilating the Forms to which they are accustomed. But a long Train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Tyranny. It is their right, it is their Duty, it is their Honor, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future Security. Such has been the Patient Sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former System of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a History of repeated Injuries and Oppressions, all having in direct and plain the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be presented to a candid World.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public Good. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing Importance, unless they be signed by him, and when refused, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to pass other Laws for the Amendment of those which were already in Force, and to suspend his Assent to the Acts of the Legislature, a right which is expressly granted in the Charter.

He has called together legislative Bodies in places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the Center of their Population, for the sole Purpose of frustrating their Measures with his Negative. He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly Firmness his Invasions on the Rights of the People. He has refused to assent to Acts which have been passed, whereby the Legislature, in violation of the Charter, have obtained the Right of Trial by Jury in their own Cases, and that every one in the same has enjoyed that Right of Trial by Jury, and in every other Case.

He has endeavored to prevent the Population of these States; for that Purpose having long the Law for Naturalization of Strangers, requiring that those who became his Subjects should be bound to serve him in War, and in the most cruel Manner of Slavery, by obliging them to bear Arms against their Brethren, and bearing the Expence of their Transport and Maintenance of them. He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers. He has made Judges dependent on his Will, for the Tenure of their Offices, and the Amount and Payment of their Salaries. He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither Swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their Substance. He has kept among us a standing Army, without the Consent of our Legislature.

He has endeavored to make the Trade independent of and superior to the Will of the People. He has endeavored to obstruct the Trade, by cutting off the Trade from the most valuable Parts of the World. He has endeavored to obstruct the Trade, by cutting off the Trade from the most valuable Parts of the World. - В основу был положен проект Т. Джефферсона. Декларация объявляла об отделении колоний от Великобритании и образовании нового самостоятельного государства – Соединенных Штатов Америки.
- Декларация противопоставила господствовавшей в то время теологической теории происхождения власти идею суверенитета народа и его право на революцию. В ней также провозглашалось равенство всех людей перед законом и их неотъемлемые права на «жизнь, свободу и стремление к счастью».
- «Декларация независимости» имела огромное историческое значение, она утверждала принципы демократии и республиканские формы правления.
- День принятия Декларации (4 июля) стал национальным праздником США — Днем независимости, который ежегодно торжественно отмечается всей страной.

Как вы думаете, почему началом революции во Франции считается не день, когда третье сословие объявило себя Национальным собранием, а штурм и разрушение Бастилии 14 июля 1789 года?

«1789 год знаменует поворотный момент новой истории, поскольку люди того времени возжелали низвергнуть принцип божественного права и ввести в историю силу отрицания и бунта, сформировавшуюся в борьбе идей за последние столетия...так называемое вольнодумство, мысль философов и юристов, послужили рычагом для этой революции»

Альбер Камю

Сопоставьте основные
положения
Декларации
независимости США и
Декларации прав
человека и гражданина.

1. Какие мероприятия в ходе революции во Франции расчистили путь для развития в стране капиталистических отношений?

2. Какие факторы способствовали установлению якобинской диктатуры? Как вы думаете, это был закономерный процесс или нет? Обоснуйте свою точку зрения.

3. К каким последствиям привёл якобинский террор?

4. Почему, несмотря на террор и массовые казни, революцию во Франции историки называли Великой?
