Ruslan and Ludmila

Prologue

So restless for a green oak leaved,
And to it with a gold chain bound,
A learned cat whines away the hours
By walking slowly round and round
To right he walks, and sings a dirge:
To left he walks, and tells a tale...

What marvels there! A mermaid sitting
High in a tree, a sprite, a troll
While unknown beauties never seen by
Man's eyes, a hat on chicken feet,
Without a door, without a window,
An evil witch's lone retreat;

The woods and valleys there are teeming
With strange things... Dawn brings waves
That, gleaming

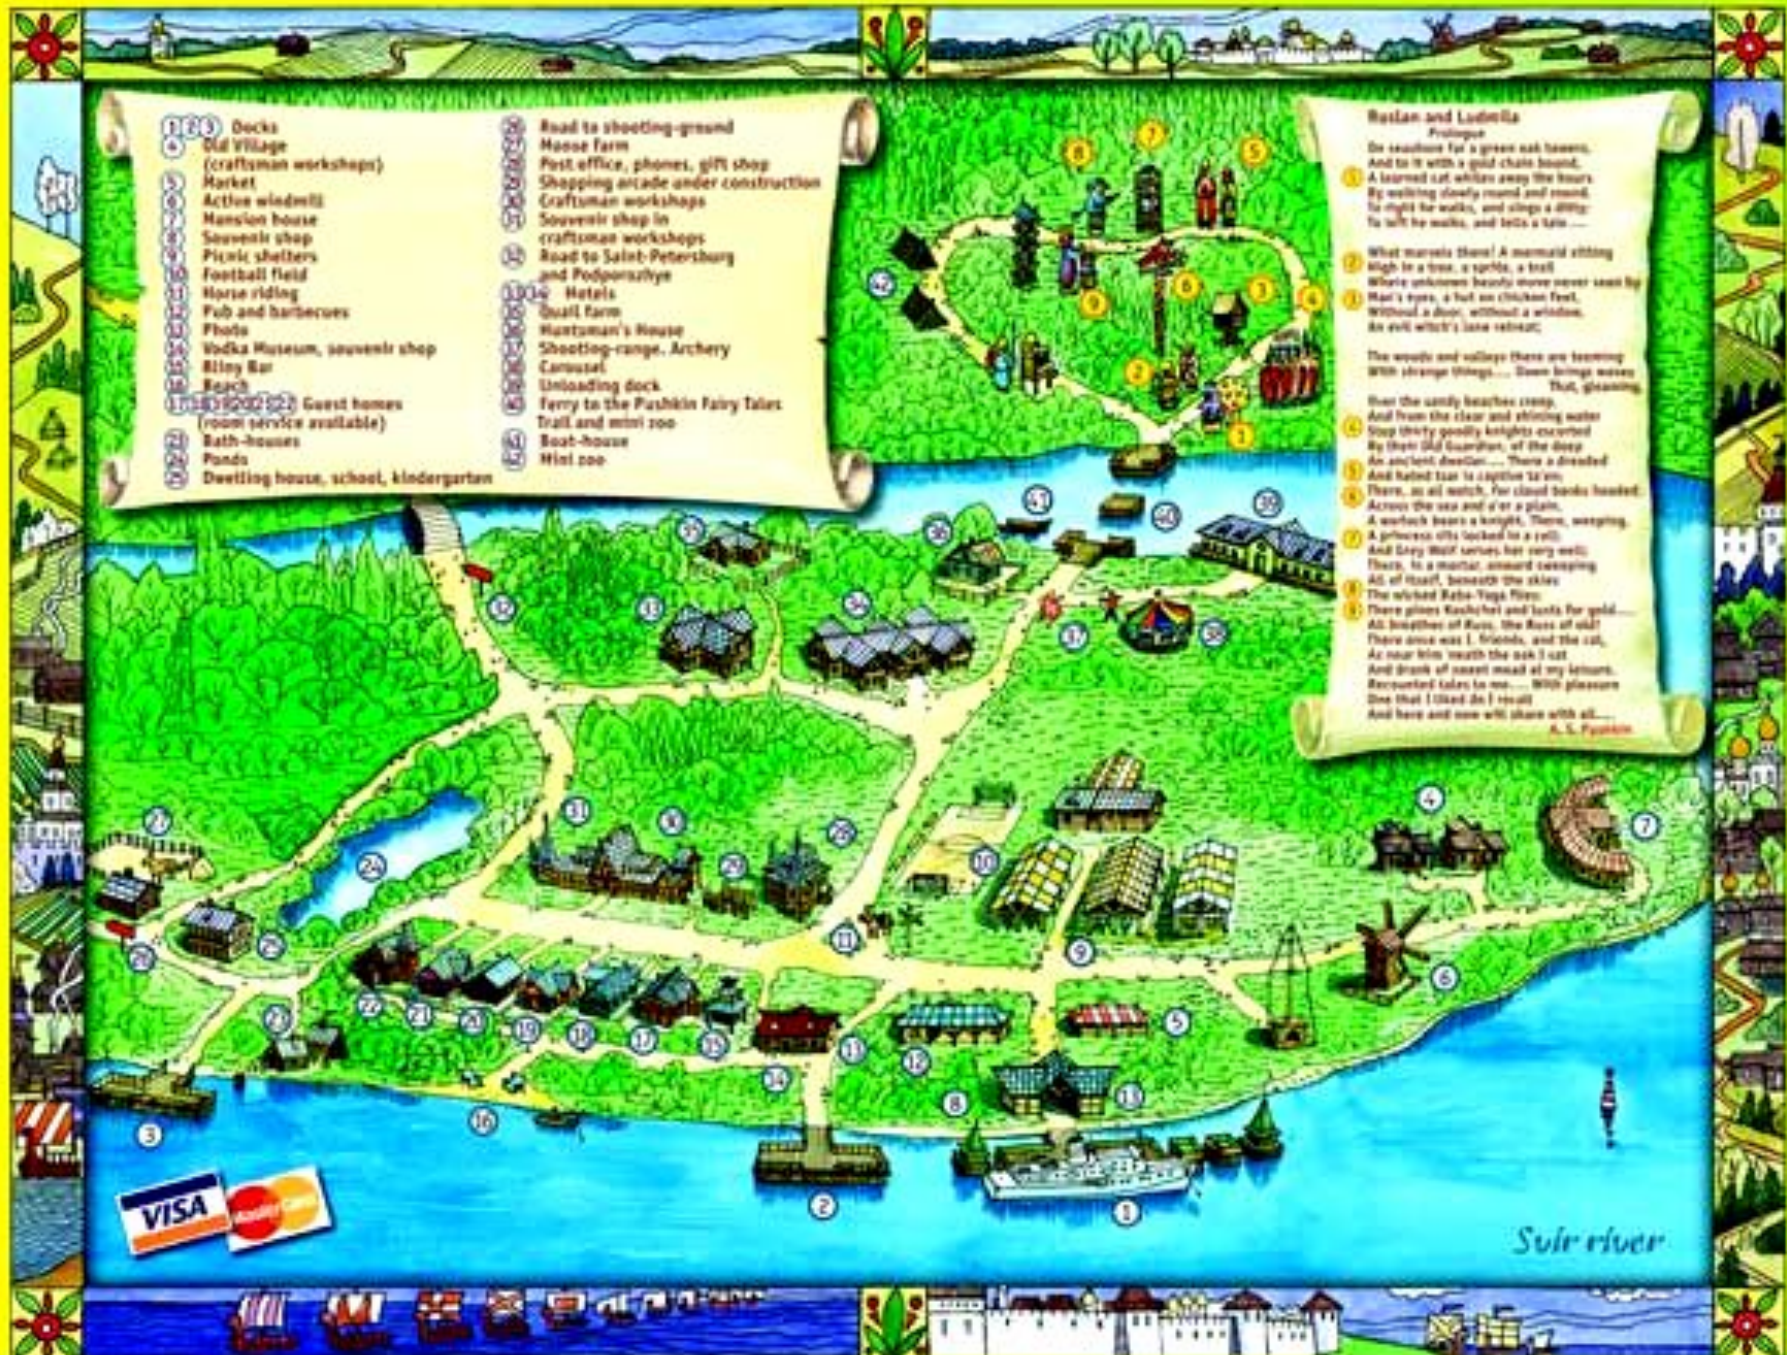

Over the sandy beaches creep,

And from the clear and shining water
Step thirty goodly knights escorted
By their old Guardian, of the deep
An ancient dragon... There a dreared
And haled tree is captive to win
There, as all watch, far cloud bands heaved
Across the sea and o'er a plain,
A wretched bear a knight, there, weeping
A princess sits locked in a cell;
And Gray Wolf series has very well
There, in a mortar, around swaying
All of itself, beneath the skies

The wicked Baba-Yaga flies:

There glines Kachikel and tents for gold...
All brethren of Russ, the Russ of old!
There once was I, friends, and the cat,
As near him wealth the oak I sat
And proud of meat meat at my leisure,
Recurred tales to me... With pleasure
Owe that I liked do I recall
And here and now will share with all...
