7 How beautiful are the feet of them that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth salvation; that say, Zion, Thy God reigneth!

10 Yet it pleased the Lord to bring down from heaven, and to take unto himself a man of sin, who was born of a woman, and was made like unto men; and he was full of grace and truth, and he came to save that which was lost.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will bring thy foundations with stones of sapphires, and thy walls with carbones of fire.

12 And thou shalt be built up, and thou shalt be inhabited, and thou shalt be called, The City of Righteousness.

ISAIAH 52:

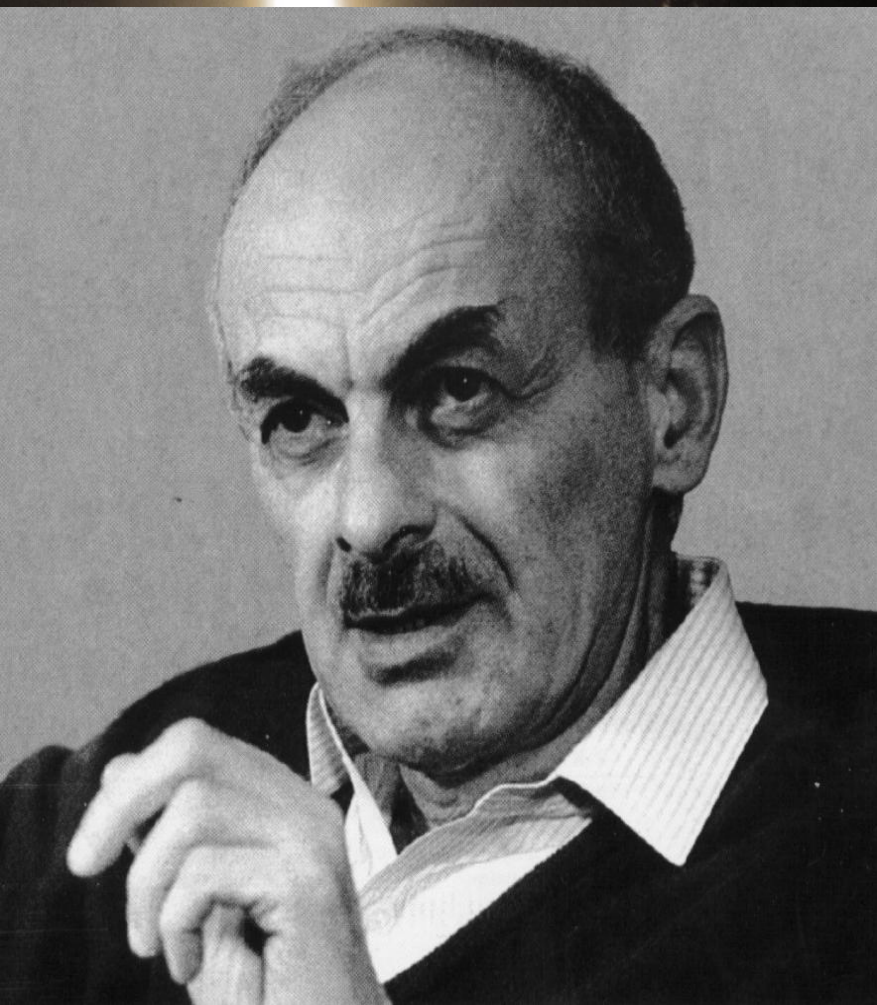

3 For thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
4 For thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the Lord, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the Lord; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.
6 Therefore my people shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: my name: that I am he that bringeth down the mountains, and the hills shall be removed, but the hills shall not depart from their place.
7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth salvation, that saith, Zion, Zion, Thy God reigneth.
8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice, and they shall be glad, because they shall see the Lord, and they shall be glad, because they shall see the Lord, and they shall be glad, because they shall see the Lord.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, because he had done no violence, neither had he deceived any man.
10 Yet would he not have any deceit in his mouth, because he was any deceit in his mouth.
11 He was taken from prison, and who shall declare his death?
12 He was taken from judgment, and who shall declare his death?
13 He was taken from judgment, and who shall declare his death?
14 He was taken from judgment, and who shall declare his death?
15 He was taken from judgment, and who shall declare his death?

16 For thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
17 In a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee, and in a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee.
18 In a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee, and in a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee.
19 In a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee, and in a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee.
20 In a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee, and in a little moment, but with wrath, will I visit thee.
