DO LESS GET MORE

Time management is a set of principles, practices, skills, tools, and systems working together to help you get more value out of your time with the aim of improving the quality of your life.

Time management consist of:

- strict account of the time;
- optimization time resources;
- planning of the day (week, month and etc.);
- organization of motivation.

MYTHS

FACTS

Some believe that time management is needed only for work and in Russia it is ineffective

FALSE

Myth 1. No one can manage time

Time management is about managing your own life.

You will be surprised, how many minutes and hours are released, once you start to act more deliberately and consciously.

Myth 2. Time management will make me work more and harder

Elimination of unnecessary tasks and so-called "time-eaters" or
"chronophage" is the main aim.

Myth 3. The use of time management makes me a robot that will do everything according to the schedule, deprive me of freedom and choice

People are afraid to turn into robots, but in fact they already are.

Time management does not limit our freedom, but creates it.

Principle 1: Plan your action

PLAN:

1. Commit purpose in writing;
1. Plan your day;
1. Divide large tasks.

Principle 2: Identify the desired result in the specific goals and objectives

Principle 3. Commit your action plan

Principle 4.
Set your priorities

Principle 5. Focus on the main

THE MAIN THING IS TO KEEP
THE MAIN THING
A MAIN THING.
