

Mykola Glushchenko

September 17, 1901,
Novomoskovs'k,
Dnipropetrovsk region -
† 31 October 1977

Завалкевич
Анастасія
Учениця 11-Б

Ukrainian Soviet artist

- ❖ was educated in Germany
- ❖ Famous Ukrainian leaders supported it. For example, Hetman P. Skoropadsky paid studying and Vladimir Vynnycenko helped organize the first solo exhibition of Berlin
- ❖ eventually moved from Berlin to Paris, he opened an art studio in the street Volunteers, 23, is attended by representatives of Ukrainian and Russian emigration.

Interesting fact!

- Soviet spy ("Jarema")
- He taught Hitler to draw

- He had nearly 50 solo exhibitions and participated in over 200 group.
- His works are in museums in Ukraine, Russia, France, USA, Canada and other countries.
- People's Artist of Ukraine (1944).
- Laureate of the State Prize of Ukraine Shevchenko (1972).
- People's Artist of the USSR (1976).

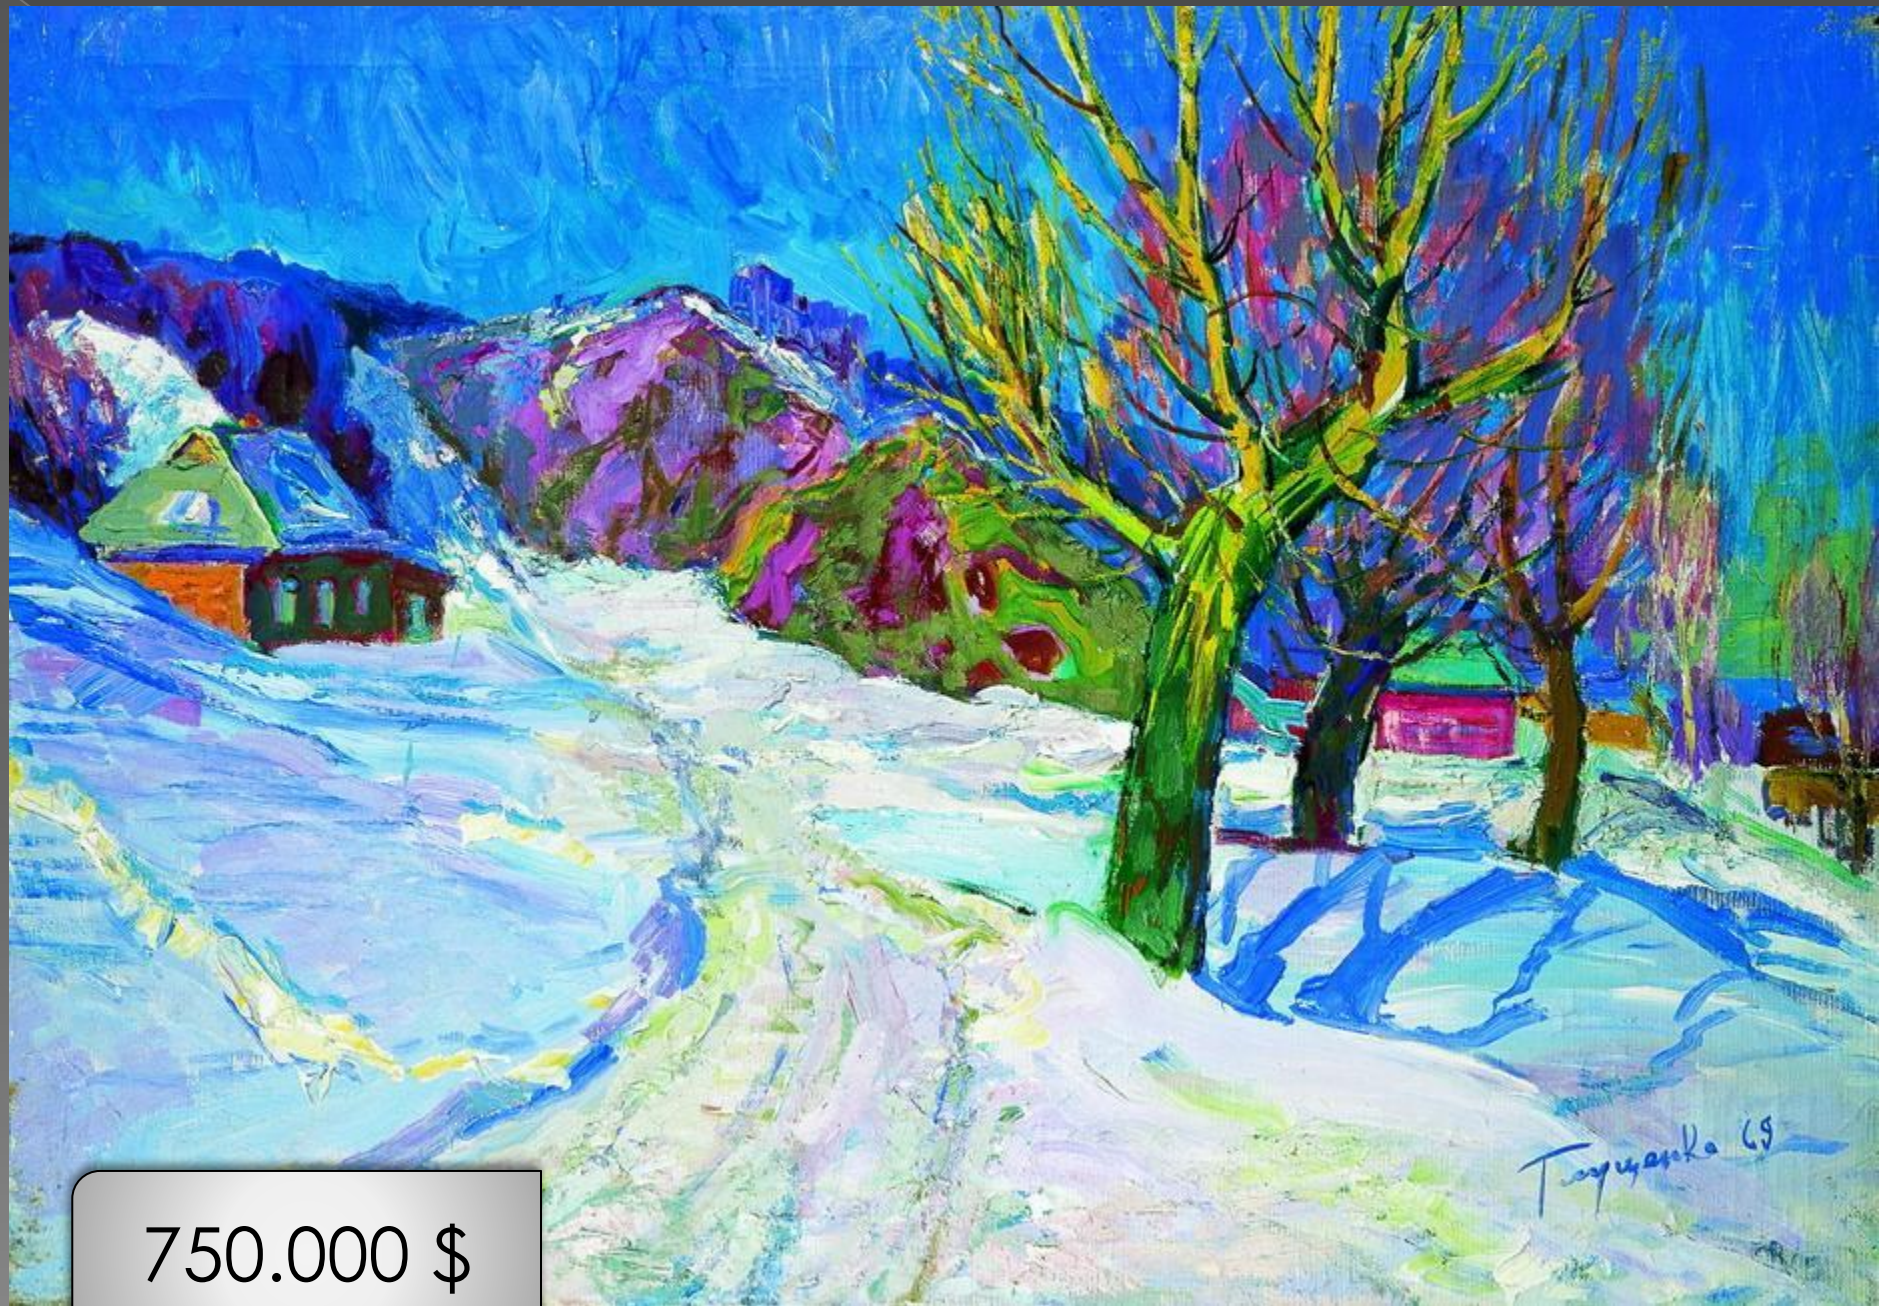

First green
90.000 $

Vladimir Hill
120,000 $

750.000 $

