The painting depicts a young girl with long, reddish-brown hair, sitting on a large, grey rock in a dense forest. She is wearing a dark, patterned dress and a light-colored shawl. Her head is bowed, and her hands are clasped near her face, conveying a sense of sadness or melancholy. The background is filled with tall, thin trees and dense foliage, creating a somber and atmospheric setting. The lighting is soft and diffused, typical of the Symbolist style.
