

Engineering and Technology in our Life

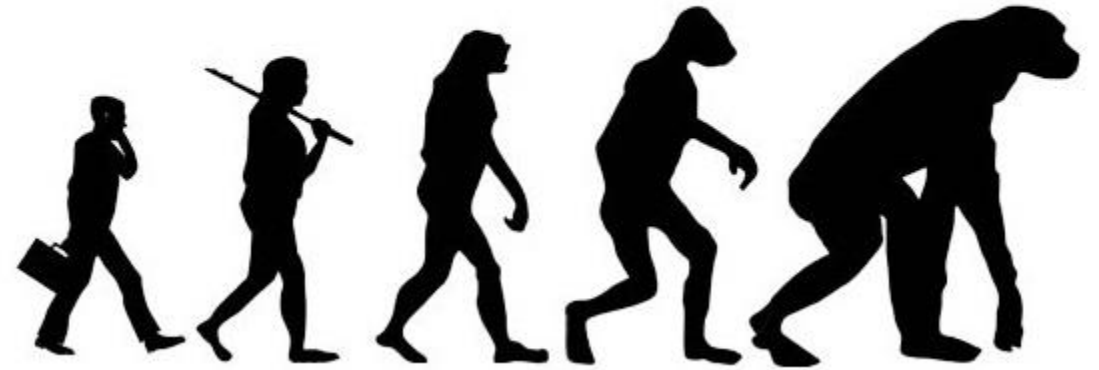

Engineering requires the use of math, and a solid science basic

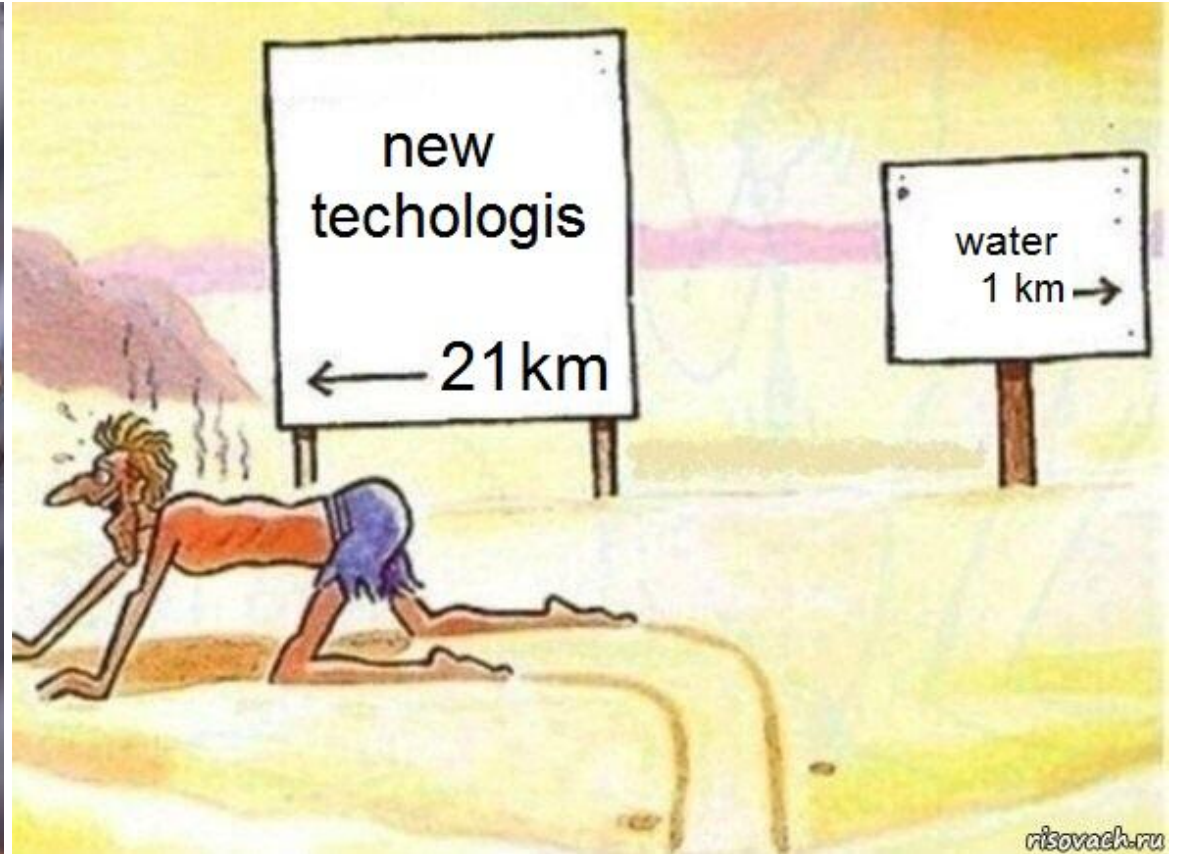

Development of new methods, computational tools in engineering

when you do not use new technologies

Life without water today and centuries ago

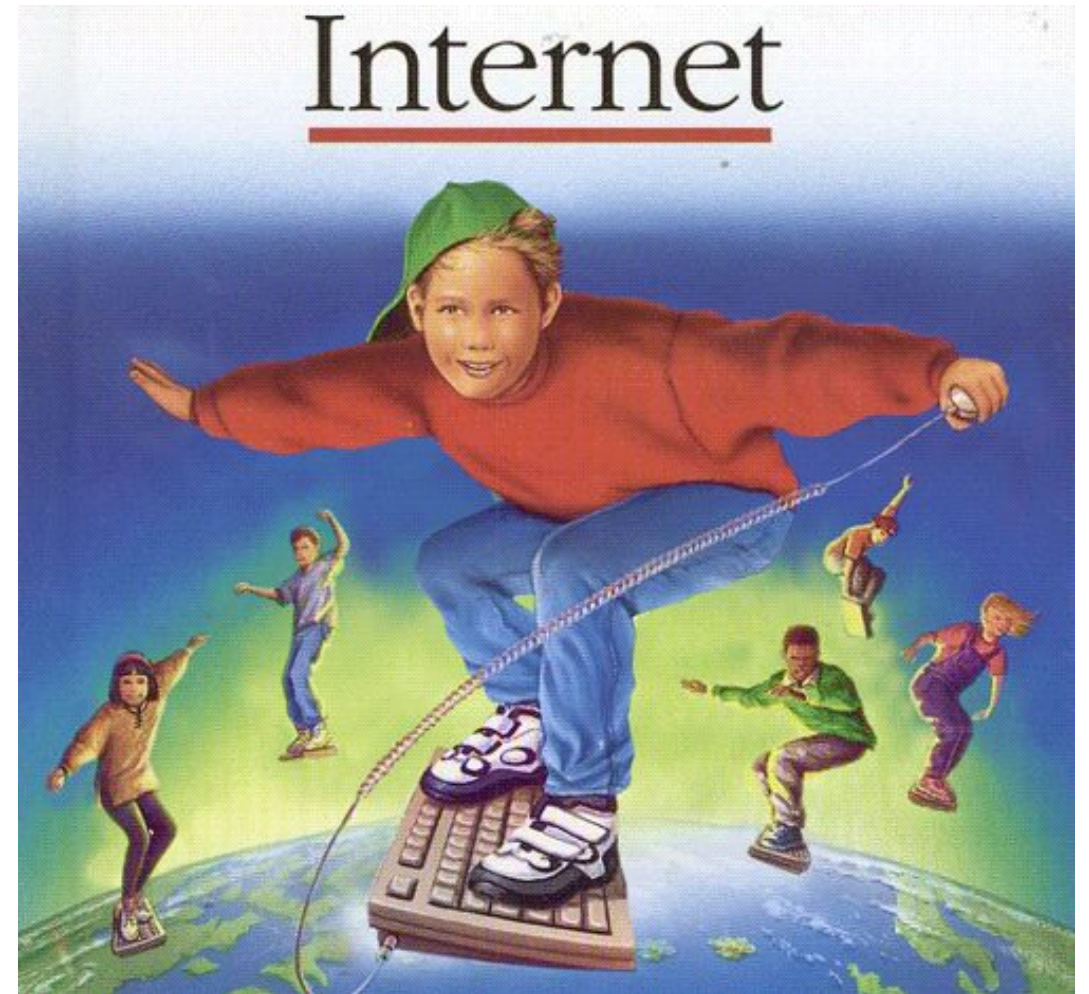

Nationwide effort to identify the effect of engineering by NAE professional ... engineers

Marvels or the 20th centuries

Basic necessities

The role of engineering in our life

