

A dirt path leads through a lush green park. The path is flanked by tall, thin trees and dense foliage. In the distance, a few people can be seen walking on the path. The overall scene is bright and vibrant, with a mix of green and yellow tones.

Five Most Known Parks of London

Ogilets Anastasiya
9D-31

Hyde Park

- One of the biggest royal parks. There is the oldest London lake

- In the park there are paths and platforms for skateboarders, bikers and equestrians.

- Also there is a fountains at which in hot days it is always possible to be cooled.

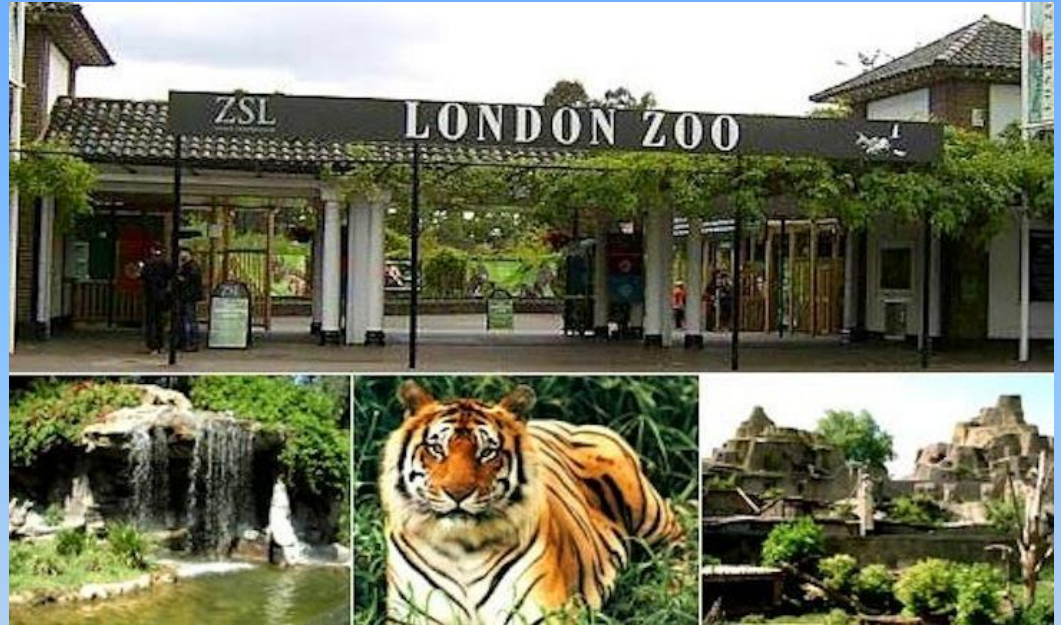

- Establish roundabouts and attractions in the winter.

Regent's Park

- One of the most favourite places of residents of London. In this park the well-known zoo of London, and also Open Theatre.

- In Regent's Park go different musical, kitchen, boat f

- On park gardens in 30,000 roses, tennis courts, mini-shops with ice cream and cafe.

Hampstead Heath

● The wild and dense park in the north of the city sharply differs from the cut-off lawns and well-groomed flower beds of the central parks: woods, playgrounds, ponds and not short-haired meadows.

- In summertime it is possible to plunge into park reservoirs, or it is simple to walk among wild thickets.

- From one of slopes of a height on which there is this park extraordinary fascinating view of the center of London opens.

Victoria Park

- East royal park, favourite park of all children, with a swing and interesting platforms for childish creative sports.

- In park there are a lot of animals – deer, the Scottish partridges, the Canadian geese, proteins.

At the lake the cafe with a tasty local cuisine and tea is located.

St. James's Park

- The excellent view of Buckingham Palace opens.

- One of sights of this park are pelicans whom in the 17th century the Russian ambassador presented.

- In South side of park there is a museum of guard, to the East – the museum of a cavalry.

museum of guard

the museum of a cavalry