Info:

- In 2000, Harrington left the company, after which Newell bought out his share. [2] According to rough estimates of various sources, by 2011 Valve Corporation cost was from 2 to 4 billion dollars [2] [3]. According to Newell himself, the company is extremely profitable - in terms of employee is more profitable than Google and Apple [2]. At the beginning of 2011, the company had 250 employees [2], by the end of 2012 it had grown to 400 employees [3], while about half of the company's employees were former creators of modifications to games [2].
