

It was 6 o'clock yesterday.

I was sitting in the
armchair
and I was sure that ...

my elder brother
was doing
his homework.

my mum
was cooking
supper

my little brother
was watching
TV

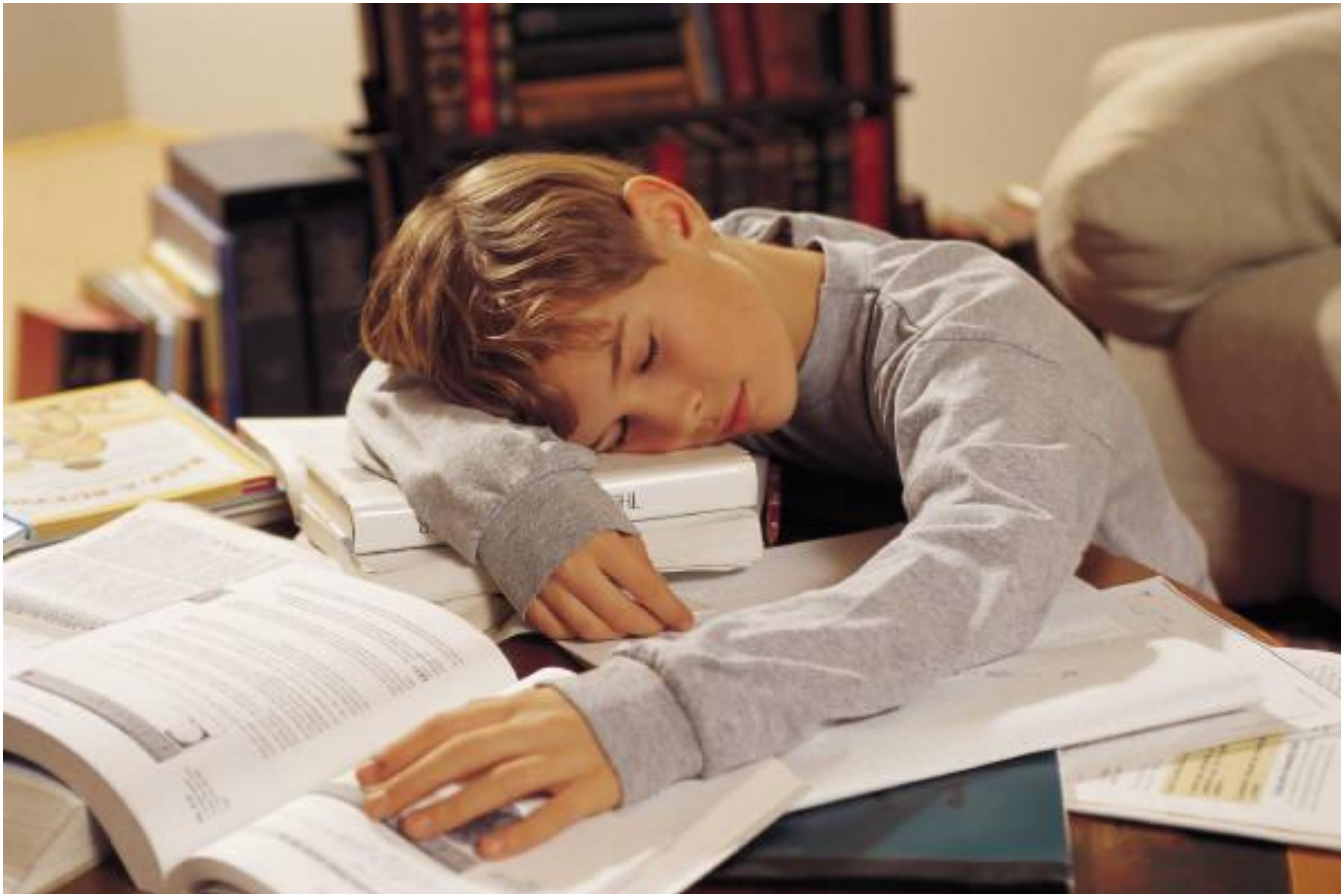

my best friends
were playing tennis

But when I came into my elder brother's room I saw that he wasn't doing his homework, he was sleeping.

When I entered the kitchen I saw that

my mum was cooking.

Was my little brother watching TV?

Yes, he was watching TV?

Were my friends playing tennis?

No, they weren't playing tennis.
They were playing basketball?

Did the action happen in the past?
Did it happen yesterday?
Was it a regular action?
Did it happen at a certain moment
in the past?
Did it happen at 6 yesterday?

Past Continuous Tense

at 6 yesterday, while smb. was doing smth., when smb. came, when smth. happened

was/were + Ving

She was cooking, while I was sitting in the armchair.

They were playing at 6 yesterday.

wasn't/weren't + Ving

He wasn't doing his homework, while I was sitting in the armchair.

They weren't playing tennis at 6 yesterday.

Was/Were + S + Ving

Was she cooking at 6 yesterday?

Were they playing at 6 yesterday?

Ben was playing when I came. (to play)

Sam and Tom weren't sleeping at 3.30 yesterday. (not to sleep)

While I was reading my brother was working on a computer. (to read, to work)

I was talking with James when the phone rang. (to talk)

We weren't watching TV yesterday in the evening. (not to watch)

While he was playing, I was working hard. (to play, to work)

She was eating the dinner when someone knocked at the door. (to eat)

Yesterday at 3 p.m. I was having lunch. (to have)

He asked me why I wasn't having dinner at the hotel at 2 yesterday. (not to have)

She was sitting in the armchair at 6
o'clock yesterday.

What were you doing at 6 yesterday?

Write names

watch TV

Marina

sleep

walk in the park

do homework

Natalie

play computer games

take a dog for a walk

read a book

Tatyana

While she was sitting in the armchair,
her brother was watching TV.

What were your relatives doing while you were also doing smth.?

Write relatives

cook supper

mother

flick through a magazine

daughter

phone to

paint a picture

sleep

celebrate your birthday

watch TV

father