A high-angle photograph of eight diverse young children sitting in a circle on a grey concrete floor. In the center of the circle is a hand-drawn globe with blue oceans and green continents. A bright yellow rectangular banner is superimposed over the globe, containing the text "BYE BYE !!!" in white, bold, serif capital letters. The children are smiling and looking towards the camera. The globe drawing is simple, with thick black outlines and diagonal hatching for shading. The children are dressed in casual, colorful clothing. The overall scene suggests a group of children participating in an environmental or social activity.
