

My profession is teacher

I work as a kindergarten teacher.
The profession of the kindergarten teacher is one of the noble and the right people.

Communication with children is - every time some sort of exam.

Wise a little teacher
and test you for strength, and at the same time love you
with sincere love.

The secret of their pure love is simple: they are open and ingenuous.

Working with children, I never cease to be amazed at how they are different, unpredictable, interesting, funny, and smart.

I am proud of my profession that my children see me smiling his special smile that I immediately recognize,
greet, and share their news and achievements.

The profession is one of the teacher most important and significant in our modern society.

To be a teacher is a calling

It means to want and be able to live again the childhood of every child, to see the world through his eyes.
