A detailed oil painting of a peaceful forest scene. A narrow stream flows through the center, reflecting the surrounding greenery. Two adult swans and several cygnets are swimming in the water. On the left, a dirt path leads through tall grasses and small blue flowers towards the stream. The background is filled with tall, slender trees with light green foliage, creating a soft, hazy atmosphere. The overall style is soft and impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a warm, natural color palette.
