Родная природа в стихотворениях русских поэтов второй половины XIX века

Не то, что мните вы, природа –
Не слепок, не бездушный лик.
В ней есть душа, в ней есть свобода,
В ней есть любовь, в ней есть язык.
