Rules of table manners

- Wash your hands before coming to table.
- Take your napkin and put it on your lap. Keep it there during the meal and use it to wipe your hands or mouth whenever necessary.
- When eating take as much as you want, but eat as much as you take.
- Don't eat too fast or too slowly, cut up your food as you eat.
- In America they invite others to table to "Enjoy", Germans say "GutenAppetit", the Spanish say "Buena Appetito". The British say nothing.

Rulers of table manners

- Sit up straight, face the table while eating and keep your elbows off the table.
- Ask the people around you to pass things that are out of your reach, then thank them.
- It's not polite to leave a spoon in a tea cup. Put your spoon on a saucer.
- When refusing a dish simply say: "No, thank you." When accepting, "Yes, please."
- If you sneeze or cough while you are at table, turn your head away from the food and cover your mouth.

Rulers of table manners

- Try not to stuff your mouth full of food. Also avoid talking when you have something in your mouth.
- Don't eat from your knife.
- Never read while eating.
- Hands should be kept in your lap when you are not eating.
- Before you leave the table remember to thank the person who was kind enough to prepare your food.

“When a man is tired of London, he is tired of life”.

«Если вы устали от Лондона, значит вы устали ОТ ЖИЗНИ».

Это означает, что в Лондоне есть на что посмотреть. И даже жители Лондона всегда могут найти новые, интересные места в своей столице.
