VISITING INTERESTING PLACES

When people are on holiday they visit different places of interest. We have found out that you were in museums and theatres, galleries and parks last summer. It's time to check up your geographical knowledge. You can see the pictures on our screen. You will have a minute to match the pictures and their names. What countries are they in?

Now it's time to act out the dialogues. We shall listen to the dialogues of all peoples and choose the best one. Listen to the dialogues carefully because you will help me to decide whose dialogue is the most interesting one. Try to play the dialogues artistically.

E.g.:

- I haven't seen you for ages. When did you spend your holiday?
- I went to Great Britain, to London.
- Who did you go to London with?
- I went there with my parents.
- What interesting places did you visit?
- We visited Trafalgar Square and Hyde Park.
- What about the British people? Were they friendly?.....
