Animal	A monkey is a wild animal . It lives in jungles and mountains in different countries like India, Africa, China and Australia and Brazil. They don't live in Russia. A monkey usually has got small or big ears and long tail. It helps them to keep their balance. It has got a brown, grey , black and white fur. Sometimes it's red. Their fur keeps them warm in cold weather. They live in high trees and eat nuts, fruit, vegetables, leaves, insects and spiders. People find them funny, noisy and friendly but sometimes also dangerous. They can bite a human. Some monkeys can't swim.
