The background features several large, stylized pink paw prints scattered across a white surface. The paw prints are rendered in a soft, slightly blurred style, giving them a gentle, artistic appearance. They are positioned around the central text, with one large print at the top right, another at the bottom right, and two others on the left side, one partially obscured by the text.
